Arpin Van Lines Names Mark Velardi
"Positive Performer of the Year"

WEST WARWICK, R.I. (May 25, 2011) - Arpin Van Lines has named Mark Velardi the 2011 "Positive Performer of the Year." Velardi is the Midwest dispatch manager.

Velardi, who has been with Arpin since February 2005, holds a previous award as the June 2010 Positive Performer.

"Velardi takes great pride in his work and handles each move professionally," said David Arpin, president and CEO of Arpin Group. "He has developed strong working relationships with the Arpin agency family members and drivers. Because of his dedication, our company has seen business increase."

Velardi has become a key figure in Arpin's operations and has contributed to the success of that department. His job requires him to collaborate with many of Arpin's offices and personnel, particularly the Safety Department and many corporate account representatives.

Mark Velardi resides in Newport, R.I.
