Franchise Owner and General Manager Chi Nwajiaku and his staff will serve the Greater Calgary area, southern and central Alberta.

Chi and Cynthia Nwajiaku (pronounced Wa Jar-Ku), Owners of the first Two Men And A Truck Calgary franchise, serving Southern and Central Alberta, are the first company in Calgary to have Mikey defibrillators in all their moving vehicles. Drivers and Movers are also trained to save lives, should emergencies occur. Celebrating their Calgary North Grand Opening event are (r-l) Kyle Braun, representing the Hon. Deepak Obhrai, MP, Calgary Forest Lawn and Calgary Chamber of Commerce's Terri Palmer with Two Men And A Truck – Canada President John Prittie looking on. Photo: Kristy Reimer Photography

“We are very optimistic about this growing business opportunity,” said Nwajiaku. “With the support of TWO MEN AND A TRUCK’s corporate positioning and values, and as a business entrepreneur, my staff and I look forward to helping consumers move as efficiently and as stress free as possible, while also helping people through our community service work within our market area.”

Said TWO MEN AND A TRUCK - Canada President John Prittie, “We are very happy to welcome Chi Nwajiaku to our franchise family, and know that he and his team will provide a much-needed resource for residential and commercial customers who need movers who care, in this growing market.”
