Chairman's Message/Message du président du conseil

WAIT A MINUTE, that's not Tom Finlay in the picture! You're right. Tom has been in the position of CAM Chairman for so long (a term and a half) that many new members thought this was his full time job. I would be remiss if I didn't start by thanking Tom for his huge role in the revitalization effort that has taken place for CAM over the past few years. Tom has always been a strong advocate for CAM. He leaves big shoes to fill and I am certainly honoured to be your Chairman for the next two years.

It has been an interesting road for me to arrive at this point. The Canadian Association of Movers has been a big part of my life for the past 10 years. I served three terms as a director, a term as treasurer and a term as vice chairman. I remember the day when Past President John Levi called and invited me to sit on the Board of Directors. Now, just as I did then, I find myself in a privileged position, sitting across the table from the leaders of the moving industry.

At our annual conference held last November in Ottawa I was sitting with a group of our suppliers, all of whom have had a long history of supporting both the moving industry and our association. During our chat, the suppliers voiced their concerns on several relevant Association issues. As a follow up to that discussion, the Board of Directors determined that a Director to specially represent the interests of supplier members would be an asset to the Board. The suppliers voted amongst themselves and elected Brian McLoughlin from The GPS Consulting Group & Insurance Agencies Inc. to be the supplier voice on the Board. We welcome his input.

One of my objectives this year is to increase supplier participation and involvement in our Association. Each and every "mover" member of our Association relies upon the support of their suppliers for their business success. Suppliers also play a major role in supporting CAM's two major yearly functions: our annual golf tournament (on September 19 this year) and our joint conference/annual awards dinner (on November 20-22). Moving Forward with Our Partners is the theme of this year's conference in Toronto. On behalf of the Association, I would like to thank each and every supplier/partner for the value YOU add to CAM. I want to encourage our mover members to invite any of your suppliers that are not currently members to join our Association.

On a totally different topic, I would like to take a few moments to address the health of our industry and, no, I'm not referring to the bottom line of a spread sheet.

ATTENDEZ UN INSTANT! Ce n'est pas Tom Finlay qui se trouve sur cette photo! Vous avez raison. Tom a occupé la position de président du conseil depuis si longtemps (un mandat et demi) que plusieurs nouveaux membres croyaient qu'il s'agissait d'un poste à temps plein pour lui. Je m'en voudrais de ne pas commencer par remercier Tom pour le rôle important qu'il a joué dans le cadre des efforts de revitalisation de l'ACD au cours des dernières années. Tom a toujours été un ardent défenseur de l'ACD. Il laisse un grand vide à combler et je suis assurément honoré de vous représenter à titre de président du conseil au cours des deux prochaines années.

Le chemin qui m'a conduit à ce point de ma carrière fut des plus intéressants. L'Association Canadienne des Déménageurs a occupé une place importante dans ma vie au cours des 10 dernières années. J'ai rempli trois mandats à titre de directeur, un mandat à titre de trésorier et un mandat à titre de vice-président du conseil. Je me souviens du jour où l'ancien président John Levi m'a appelé et invité à siéger sur le Conseil d'administration. Aujourd'hui, tout comme à ce moment-là, je me retrouve dans une position privilégiée, siégeant en face de plusieurs chefs de file de l'industrie du déménagement.

Lors de notre conférence annuelle qui s'est tenue en novembre à Ottawa, j'étais assis avec un groupe de fournisseurs de notre association, dont tous les intervenants ont toujours offert un soutien généreux à l'industrie du déménagement et à notre association. Au cours de notre discussion, les fournisseurs ont fait valoir leurs préoccupations relativement à plusieurs problématiques pertinentes à notre association. En guise de suivi à cette discussion, le conseil d'administration a déterminé qu'un poste de directeur représentant particulièrement les intérêts de nos membres fournisseurs constituerait un atout pour notre conseil d'administration. Les fournisseurs ont voté ensemble pour élire Brian McLoughlin de GPS Consulting Group & Insurance Agencies Inc à titre de représentant des fournisseurs au sein du conseil d'administration. Nous accueillons son apport précieux.

L'un de mes objectifs pour cette année sera d'accroître la participation des fournisseurs et leur implication dans notre association. La prospérité de tous les membres «déménageurs» de notre association dépend du support de leurs fournisseurs. Les fournisseurs jouent également un rôle majeur dans le soutien et le financement de deux activités annuelles importantes de l'ACD : notre tournoi de golf annuel (le 19 septembre prochain) et

President's Message/Message du président

OVER ONE YEAR has already passed in my role as CAM President. It's certainly been a year of challenges as I assumed the chief administrative job for this growing trade association. But it's been an even greater pleasure for me connecting with members and colleagues in the industry.

My thanks goes out to Tom Finlay who served as our Chairman from June 2013 to November 2015. Tom launched many new initiatives for CAM during his term and he certainly provided me with a lot of support when I assumed the presidency. Please join me in welcoming Perry Thorne as our new Chairmen, for the 2016-2018 term. I am more than confident he will have a major impact on the association as well.

I think we can all agree that 2015 came in as a banner year for CAM. Attendance at all functions is continuing to grow as indicated by the positive responses to both our 2015 golf tournament and annual conference. CAM seems to be making inroads in influencing government policies and practices. Your international committee is continuing on-going discussions with the Canada Border Service Agency to simplify and standardize customs clearance procedures for household goods coming into Canada. We believe that the process can be improved and it is our hope we can accomplish this by 2017. We are continuing the dialogue with provincial consumer services ministries in respect to education of the consumer and utilization of reputable movers, both of which have a major impact on our industry.

I am pleased to report that our membership is continuing to grow. We have increased our numbers by 12 percent over last year, to about 390. Should you know of a reputable mover or supplier who has not joined CAM, please remember that by referring them to us you can realize savings on your own membership fee.

During the last year, we increased the size of CAM's Board of Directors so all of our provinces are represented. Thanks goes out to all of these directors for volunteering their time in support of CAM. Just recently we added Bryan McLoughlin (The GPS Consulting Group & Insurance Agencies Inc.) to our Board of Directors as well. He was elected by our supplier members to represent them and to bring their views and suggestions to the Board. We are looking for good things to follow for our supplier members.

This year's golf tournament is scheduled for September 19, 2016 and has been booked at the prestigious Kaneff Course, Lionhead Golf Club in Brampton, ON. If you

PLUS D'UNE ANNÉE est déjà passée depuis mes débuts au poste de président de l'ACD. Ce fut assurément une année de défis tandis que j'assumais la direction générale pour cette association professionnelle en croissance. Mais ce fut un plaisir encore plus grand pour moi de pouvoir être en contact étroit avec nos membres et des collègues de l'industrie.

J'exprime tous mes remerciements à Tom Finlay qui a occupé le poste de président du conseil de juin 2013 à novembre 2015. Durant son mandat, Tom a contribué à introduire plusieurs nouvelles initiatives pour l'ACD et il m'a assurément offert beaucoup de support au moment où j'ai débuté ma présidence. Veuillez vous joindre à moi pour accueillir Perry Thorne à titre de nouveau président du conseil pour le mandat 2016-2018. Je suis assuré qu'il aura également un impact important sur l'association.

Je crois que nous pouvons tous être d'accord pour dire que 2015 s'est avérée une année digne de mention pour l'ACD. La participation des membres à toutes les activités est continuellement en augmentation, comme le confirment les réponses positives à l'égard de notre tournoi de golf et notre conférence annuelle de 2015. L'ACD semble faire des progrès relativement à son pouvoir d'influence au niveau des différentes politiques et pratiques gouvernementales. Votre comité international poursuit les discussions avec l'Agence des services frontaliers du Canada dans le but de simplifier et de normaliser les procédures de dédouanement pour les biens mobiliers entrant au Canada. Nous croyons que le processus peut être amélioré et nous espérons que le tout pourra se concrétiser d'ici 2017. Nous poursuivons le dialogue avec les différents ministères des services au consommateur en regard de l'éducation du consommateur et de l'utilisation des services de déménageurs de bonne réputation qui ont toutes deux un impact majeur sur notre industrie.

Je suis heureux de vous mentionner que l'effectif de nos membres est en croissance continue. Nous avons augmenté ce nombre de 12 % au cours de la dernière année pour atteindre tout près de 390 membres. Si vous connaissez un déménageur de bonne réputation ou un fournisseur qui n'a pas encore joint les rangs de l'ACD, n'oubliez pas qu'en nous référant ceux-ci, vous pouvez réaliser des économies sur votre propre adhésion.

Au cours de la dernière année, nous avons ajusté l'effectif du conseil d'administration de l'ACD à la hausse afin que toutes nos provinces y soient représentées. Nos remerciements vont à tous ces directeurs/directrices

Is an inventory really helpful? How can we improve and cut claims expense?

By Kathy Kendall, Wheaton/Bekins/Clark & Reid

iStock.com/KatyaGorelova

A properly prepared inventory can be a major factor in the settlement of a claim.

WE ARE ALL DETERMINED to prevent claims and to reduce our claims expenses. I can guarantee that every van line and agent has paid a claim for pre-existing because the inventory was not properly prepared at origin.

As adjusters or claims representatives we have always believed that the inventory is a precious document that will solve many of our claim problems and save us from costly claims by documenting the pre-existing damage. Honestly, this is not true if the individual that is preparing the inventory is not being truthful or accurate in their assessment of the existing damage. How many times have you reviewed an inventory and it seems that every item in this customer's home was damaged by the same culprit in the exact same area of each and every stick of furniture. We know that is not true so the inventory is basically useless in those cases and cannot be used to determine liability.

A properly prepared inventory can be a major factor in the settlement of a claim. If properly prepared the inventory can be a major factor in whether your decision will be upheld if the customer should file a lawsuit or arbitration.

Most, if not all, of the carriers have training programs for their drivers and agents and everyone expects the inventory to be prepared in a certain way.

We expect the driver or agent to list the proper identification of the damage with descriptive, location and exception symbols that are unique to the moving industry but that are standard for most of us. When an inventory is properly prepared the adjuster or the repair firm should be able to visualize, like a photograph in your mind, exactly what that damage is and where it is located.

We expect the inventory to contain a description of the appliances that includes make, model and brand. If these are properly identified on the inventory it will greatly assist the adjuster or claims representative at the time of a claim settlement. If the inventory lists a TV but no description and that TV is missing and documented at delivery, then the customer may claim they had a better model in order to obtain an upgrade.

This is also useful when you have mattresses and box springs that are being inventoried. The packer should also list any pre-existing condition for the mattresses and box springs. I know we have all paid claims for a mysterious "stain" on these types of items that we are sure did not happen in transit but we have nothing to support that it existed prior to shipping.

It is beneficial to also list the number of cushions that exist on a couch or loveseat and whether those cushions are packed in a carton. The same should be done if the couch has pillows that match. I cannot even remember how many claims in 33 years I have had to pay when a cushion is claimed as miss-

Est-ce qu'un inventaire est vraiment utile? Comment pouvons-nous améliorer et diminuer les dépenses liées aux réclamations?

Par Kathy Kendall, Wheaton/Bekins/Clark & Reid

iStock.com/KatyaGorelova

Un inventaire soigneusement préparé peut constituer un facteur important dans le cadre du règlement d'une réclamation.

NOUS SOMMES tous déterminés à prévenir des réclamations et à réduire nos dépenses liées aux réclamations. Je peux vous certifier que toutes les compagnies de transport et leurs agents ont déjà payé une réclamation pour des dommages préexistants parce qu'un inventaire n'avait pas été correctement fait au préalable.

À titre d'experts en sinistre ou de représentants en charge du règlement des sinistres, nous avons toujours pensé qu'un inventaire est un document fort utile qui permettra de régler plusieurs problèmes associés à nos réclamations et d'éviter de coûteuses réclamations en permettant de documenter des dommages préexistants. Honnêtement, ce n'est pas exact si la personne qui prépare l'inventaire n'est pas crédible ou ne fait pas preuve d'exactitude dans son évaluation des dommages préexistants. Combien de fois avez-vous consulté un inventaire pour constater que des items se trouvant dans la résidence du client avaient en fait été endommagés par la même personne et ce, à l'emplacement précis de chacun de ces meubles. Nous savons bien que ce n'est pas exact, ce qui fait qu'en de telles situations, cet inventaire n'est pratiquement d'aucune utilité et ne peut être utilisé afin d'en déterminer la responsabilité.

Un inventaire soigneusement préparé peut constituer un facteur important dans le cadre du règlement d'une réclamation. S'il est préparé adéquatement, l'inventaire peut être un facteur important pour déterminer si votre décision sera maintenue dans l'éventualité où le client déciderait de vous poursuivre ou d'aller en arbitrage.

La grande majorité des transporteurs ont des programmes de formation pour leurs chauffeurs et leurs agents et ils s'attendent tous à ce que l'inventaire soit réalisé d'une certaine manière. Nous nous attendons à ce que le chauffeur ou l'agent inscrive la nature exacte d'un dommage, incluant sa description, son emplacement et des symboles d'exception qui sont propres à l'industrie du déménagement tout en étant normalisés pour la majorité d'entre nous. Lorsqu'un inventaire est soigneusement préparé, l'expert en sinistre ou l'entreprise de réparation devrait être à même de visualiser, tout comme une photographie gravée dans votre esprit, la nature exacte du dommage et quel en est son emplacement.

Nous nous attendons à ce que l'inventaire contienne une description des appareils électroménagers qui inclut la marque et le modèle. Si ces informations sont correctement identifiées sur l'inventaire, elles aideront beaucoup l'expert en sinistre ou le représentant en charge des réclamations lors du règlement d'une réclamation. Si l'inventaire inclut un téléviseur, mais sans aucune description, et que ce téléviseur est déclaré manquant au moment de la livraison, le client pourrait alors réclamer un modèle différent afin d'obtenir un appareil de qualité supérieure.

Il est tout aussi utile lorsqu'un tel inventaire contient la description de matelas et de sommiers. L'emballeur devrait également inscrire toute condition préexistante relativement aux matelas et aux sommiers. Je sais que nous avons tous payer des réclamations au sujet d'une «tache» d'origine inconnue apparaissant sur ce type d'items et à propos de laquelle nous sommes convaincus qu'elle n'est pas survenue lors du transport, mais nous n'avons alors aucune information pour supporter le fait qu'elle existait effectivement avant l'expédition.

Il est également bénéfique de détailler également le nombre de coussins qu'il y a sur un canapé ou une causeuse et si ces coussins sont emballés dans une boîte. On devrait également noter si le canapé est doté d'oreillers appareillés. Je ne me rappelle plus du nombre de réclamations que j'ai eues à payer en 33 ans lorsqu'un coussin était déclaré manquant. Il est également utile de noter la couleur du mobilier rembourré sur l'inventaire car plusieurs résidences intègrent plusieurs items similaires tels plusieurs canapés, chaises et tables d'extrémité.

Beaucoup de compagnies de transport et d'agents utilisent également un formulaire permettant de documenter les dommages préexistants d'un immeuble afin d'éviter de devoir payer de coûteuses réclamations pour des dommages préexistants avant le chargement ou la livraison des biens ménagers. J'ai joint à cet article un exemple de formulaire utilisé à cet effet dans l'industrie.

Nous aimons tous réduire nos coûts et nos dépenses de réclamations pour nos compagnies et la meilleure façon d'y parvenir est de former nos employés et de leur fournir les outils appropriés pour qu'ils accomplissent ce travail adéquatement.

ing. It is also helpful to list the color of the over-stuffed furniture on the inventory since many homes have several similar pieces such as numerous couches, chairs and end tables.

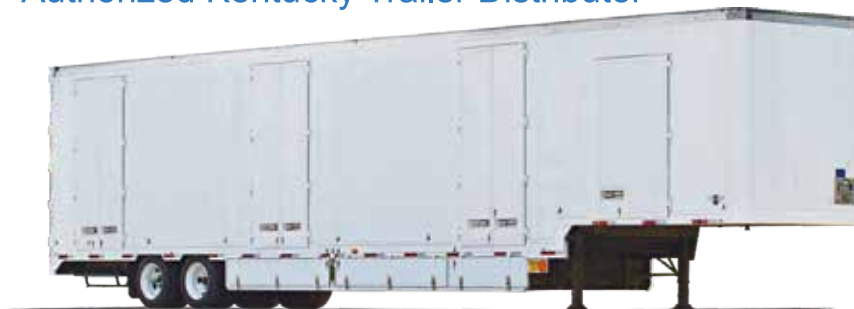

More of the van lines and agents are also utilizing a form to document pre-existing residence damage to avoid having to pay costly claims for damage that existed prior to loading or delivery of the household goods. I have included a sample of a form that has been used in the industry for this purpose.

We all like to cut cost and claims expense for our companies and the best way to do that is to train our employees and to provide them with the tools necessary to do the job properly.

Keep on Truckin'

By Larry Kruger

If you remember this, best hire a mover. Your trucking days are behind you.

BACK IN THE DAY, you and your buddies would think nothing of moving your lava lamp and all your worldly goods on a weekend. At that time you mirrored the Bob Seger's song playing in the back ground, you 'felt like a million, felt like number one, in the height of summer you never felt so strong, like a rock'.

Moving was done in an afternoon, in-between a few pints and a lot of laughs .Well time keeps trucking on and although in your mind you are still living in the glory days, the old rock may be getting a little weathered.

Being in the moving business for over 30 years, I am still amazed at the number of folks my age or older wanting to move on their own. When I hear that they are thinking of moving themselves, I always feel it's time for an intervention. The reality is, back then, you hadn't yet amassed the stuff you have now and your back, knees and shoulders are not in the same condition they were 20 or 30 plus years ago.

Today when you can finally afford a mover it is just not worth doing it on your own.

- Reality check #1. Go over and grab the end of the sofa and give it a controlled slow lift, using your legs, keeping your back straight and, oh yeah I almost forgot, be sure to drop it before you hear a pop. Now take a look around your home. The average weight of household goods in a three-bedroom home is in the area of 8,000 to 10,000 lbs (3,600 to 4,500 kg). Yes, four or five tons. Your stuff weighs about the same as an African bull elephant. If you're reading this Jane, tell Tarzan there is more to this than he may remember.

- Reality check # 2. Still want to eat that elephant? Let's break it down into bite size pieces. That weekend move you are thinking about doing equates to 100 squats using 100 lbs. (45.3 kg) to load the truck then you have to offload, so take that to 200 reps. Think about it – 200 dead lift reps using 100 lbs. (45.3 kg) (Give that a go at the gym next Saturday just to get limbered up a little, pre move.)

• Reality checks #3. Add a little cardio. Add in a 20-yard (18 metres) carry taking the goods out to the truck (if you can get the truck to the door). Now double that to offload (let's round it down) to around 5000-plus-yard carry, so call it two miles or 3.22 kilometers. Not over

"I colour coded. The red ones are his, and the green ones are mine."

yet. Add an incline; yes, there is a walk board at the end or beginning of every trip. So again, to put it in perspective, strap on a 50-lb. (22.7 kg) weight and take a two-mile (3.22 km) walk going uphill and downhill every 15 (13.7 m) yards. How are the old knees these days?

• Reality check #4. Can you drive the truck? If not, is a day with your brother-in-law or old buddy telling you how to lift things really worth it? (The guy driving the truck instantly graduates to resident expert.) On top of him, you will owe everyone that helps or that just shows up and drinks your beer and eats your pizza big time and for a long time. Besides, what impression do you make with your new neighbors when you roll up to your new digs looking like the Beverly Hillbillies?

There is a time in your life when moving yourself was just fine and then there is now. When selling your home and rightsizing, I would suggest you do a reality check, get some moving estimates in advance and budget that service into the selling or buying cost.

Keep on truckin' but get someone else to do the heavy lifting. It is well worth it.

Soyez réaliste

Par Larry Kruger

Si ceci vous rappelle des souvenirs, mieux vaut embaucher un déménageur. Les déménagements ne sont plus pour vous.

À L'ÉPOQUE, vous et vos amis trouviez que ce n'était rien de déménager votre lampe à lave et tous vos biens de ce monde lors d'un week-end. Dans ce temps-là, vous reflétiez les paroles de la chanson de Bob Seger qui jouait en arrière-plan et qui disaient : “felt like a million, felt like number one, in the height of summer you never felt so strong, like a rock.”

Votre déménagement se faisait en un après-midi, entre quelques bouteilles de bière et beaucoup de rires. Eh bien, le temps passe et quoique dans votre esprit, vous vous croyez toujours au bon vieux temps, vous avez assurément pris un léger coup de vieux.

Impliqué dans l'industrie du déménagement depuis plus de 30 ans, je suis toujours ébahi par le nombre de personnes de mon âge ou plus vieilles qui veulent eux-mêmes effectuer leur déménagement. Lorsque j'apprends qu'ils considèrent déménager eux-mêmes, je pense à chaque fois que je dois devoir intervenir. La réalité, en fait, c'est que vous n'avez même pas commencé à emballer toutes les choses que vous possédez et que votre dos, vos genoux et vos épaules ne sont plus dans la condition ou ils étaient 20 ou 30 ans passés.

Aujourd'hui, au moment où vous pouvez enfin vous payer un déménageur, ça ne vaut vraiment pas la peine de le faire vous-même.

- Réalité n° 1. Essayez de saisir l'extrémité du sofa et de le soulever lentement de façon contrôlée en utilisant vos jambes, tout en maintenant votre dos droit et – c'est vrai, j'avais presque oublié – assurez-vous de le reposer par terre avant d'entendre un léger claquement. Maintenant, jetez un coup d'œil dans votre maison. Le poids moyen de tous les biens ménagers se trouvant dans une demeure possédant trois chambres se situe entre 8 000 et 10 000 lb (3,600 à 4,500 kg). Oui, 4 ou 5 tonnes. Vos biens ont environ le même poids que celui d'un éléphant d'Afrique. Si vous lisez ceci, Jane, dites à Tarzan qu'il y a beaucoup plus de choses à faire auxquelles il ne pense même pas.

Droit d'auteur pour l'illustration © Robert Crumb. Utilisé avec la permission de l'auteur.

• Réalité n° 2. Vous voulez toujours vous taper un tel “éléphant”? Commençons par regarder ça une chose à la fois. Ce week-end de déménagement que vous considérez faire équivaut à 100 flexions avec un poids de 100 lb (45,3 kg) pour charger le camion, puis vous devez le décharger par la suite, ce qui vous donne un total de 200 répétitions. Pensez-y – 200 levées de poids de 100 lb (45,3 kg). (Essayez de faire ça lorsque vous irez au gym, samedi prochain, seulement pour bien vous préparer avant le déménagement.)

• Réalité n° 3. Mettez-y un peu de cardio. Ajoutez une distance de 20 verges (18 mètres) pour porter les items dans le camion (et ce, si vous pouvez stationner le camion à la porte). Maintenant, doublez cette distance pour le déchargement (arrondissons ce chiffre), ce qui donne environ 5 000 verges de transport, soit environ deux milles ou 3,22 kilomètres. Et ce n’est pas fini. Ajoutez la pente; eh oui, il y a une rampe d’accès au début et à la fin de chacun des déplacements. Donc, juste pour mettre les choses en perspective, attachez un poids de 50 lb (22,7 kg) à votre corps et prenez une marche de 2 milles (3,22 km) en montant et en descendant à tous les 15 verges (13,7 m). Comment sont vos genoux de ce temps-ci?

• Réalité n° 4. Pouvez-vous conduire un camion? Sinon, est-ce que le fait de passer une journée entière avec votre beau-frère ou votre bon ami qui vous dirait comment lever tel et tel poids en vaut vraiment la chandelle? (N’oubliez pas que celui qui conduit le camion cette journée-là se considère automati-quement comme un maître-déménageur.) En plus de cette personne, vous en devrez une à tous ceux qui vous aideront ou qui se montreront le bout du nez pour boire votre bière et dégustez votre pizza et ce, pour longtemps. De plus, quelle impression ferez-vous à vos nouveaux voisins lorsque vous roulez vos manches comme un bûcheron pour vous mettre au travail?

Il fut un temps dans votre vie où effectuer votre propre déménagement était la chose à faire, puis il y a maintenant. Lorsque vous vendre votre maison et réorganiserez votre prochaine demeure, je vous suggère de faire un tableau des réalités inhérentes à un déménagement, d’obtenir quelques soumissions de déménagement à l’avance et de budgéter ce service dans votre prix de vente ou votre prix d’achat.

Soyez réaliste, mais laissez les manutentions lourdes à quelqu’un d’autre. Ça vaut vraiment la peine.

Building an Industry Together Benefits Everyone

By Ron Waddling

What was once a local household mover grew to include office moving, business records management, special-products handling, real estate and solar energy, from local to international.

PETER NAYLOR transfers the lead of the Tippet Richardson group of companies after 60 plus years and reflects on what worked for him. One of his recollections is about the Canadian Association of Movers (CAM).

In 1983 the original CAM disbanded due to government examination of industry activities. Government assessments and responses from associations were usual within most regulated industries in Canada at that time. In 1996 Peter, after a hiatus, returned to the management of Tippetts. Upon his awareness that Canadian movers did not have a national association to discuss mutual interests, issues and opportunities, he gathered other interested parties together to reinstate CAM in time for an annual convention.

This action represents a trait of Peter Naylor's career. Building an industry together, whether locally, nationally, or internationally, provides a professional image while taking great strides in the advancement of cooperation for all who belong.

Tippet- Richardson thrived as a regional mover from its origin in 1927. "The Friendly Mover" was known for their exceptional service. The truck with the logo of Mr. Tippet's smiling face tipping his cap to his customer became iconic. TR's base of operations was Ontario, expanding to Alberta in the mid 70's, and adding California, British Columbia and the Maritime provinces in the 80's.

Tippet-Richardson continued to evolve in answer to the demand for varied services. What was once a local household mover grew to include office moving, business records management, special-products handling, real estate and solar energy, from local to international. In each sector,

Peter Naylor

Tippet-Richardson and Peter Naylor maintained a strong commitment to excellent customer service and satisfaction. Building partnerships in Canada and around the world strengthened the firm.

In his youth Peter spent many summers running loads for TR between the United States and Canada and always felt the nations were seamless. Under his guidance, TR became the recognised cross-border hauling agent for their van line. With the expertise and knowledge of border crossing and customs, Tippet-Richardson Limited would later open an office in California to move trailers full of mainframe computers from the Silicon Valley to Canada, competing with the airlines on a time-sensitive schedule.

Overseas moving, special lift vans, rail containers, sea shipping schedules, consolidated containers and single 40-foot containers required more knowledge than local or long distance moves across Canada and the USA. TR had both the proficiency and capability. Working with international firms with similar philosophies as Tippet-Richardson and the Naylor family was essential.

Peter and his late wife Dolores were able to enhance their lives with many like-minded partners from culturally-different backgrounds as they travelled the world, meeting and talking with owners and individuals. Many of their first contacts stemmed from earlier visits by Russell and Norah, Peter's parents who first represented TR overseas.

The Naylor representation continued with Bruce Naylor, his brother, and Maureen, his wife. The Naylor family remain a connected part of the international removals world. Today Peter's children, Brenda and Kevin, represent Tippet Richardson International and their values, international image and hospitality.

Peter travelled to the various conventions and industry events over the years, sharing his business experiences and learning from his fellow removal firms.

He was always enthusiastically engaged in discussion related to the development and optimum use of warehouse space and the varying ways firms organised their business and resources around the use of properties.

Business records management, at the time, was not typically thought of as a service offered by a household mover, but was in fact, a natural added-value feature for business people who required secure storage space. The security required of TR's bonded warehouses for international and household storage provided ultimate protection for sensitive hard copy business files.

Through the efficient utilisation of buildings, Tippet-Richardson created a real estate division where additional profit could be made in the building, acquiring and ultimately the selling of properties.

Peter Naylor, without hesitation, shared his ideas with fellow movers in Canada and worldwide.

Keeping up with changes in technology opened doors to new business and the firm continually looked ahead to opportunity. Their Special Products division catered to the fragility of moving high tech computers and related support systems in the 70's and 80's.

Today, the new features of Tippet warehouses in Toronto are rotating solar panels. Green thinking is an advanced feature of TR's track record for service and adaptation.

The venture into solar energy and using warehouse properties as the medium is a similar forethought to the historical move of creating a business records management company. The difference today is TR's forethought to supply solar energy. The thinking process evolves from society, government, corporations, and environmentalists asking what kind of carbon footprint are you leaving behind? The Naylor family as leaders in this field are proud of the conscientious effort they have contributed.

Just as Peter took to his father's business, his children, now grown, have followed suit and taken interest in different divisions of the company. Brenda Naylor continues to own and operate TR Westcan Inc./Tippet-Richardson which is based out of Vancouver and Calgary. Brenda is active in many international and domestic associations of the industry and manages the full service removals firm. Kevin Naylor manages Tippet's World (originally T-R Overseas) and is based in Toronto. Kevin continues to develop new methods of approaching the demand for international moving as the world becomes smaller and more mobile. Scott Naylor is assuming Peter's role in overseeing Warehouse Properties Ltd. based in Toronto.

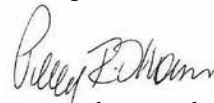

The Canadian movers should be pleased by the many contributions they make to an ever growing population. Peter for over 60 years has found satisfaction in working together with the moving community and his colleagues to achieve an enjoyable quality of life.

'My experience in this business has been very rewarding. Today, I feel proud to say I have contributed to my community, developed industry and international friendships, built warehouses with a focus on versatility, for future opportunities, gone green and will be passing this on to my children,' states Peter.

Ron Waddling has been an associate of Tippet Richardson since 1973.

I'm talking about the physical health of our members. Every year we gather together at networking events (like the ones I referred to earlier) and what's clearly evident is that those in attendance are not the 30-somethings. Most of us have greying or, in my case, very little hair. The truth is, folks, our industry is led by experienced people. Experience and age go hand-in-hand. Each and every one of us has done whatever it takes to ensure that the state of our business remains healthy. We work long, stressful hours with little sleep; we are constantly on the move doing business, eating on the run and paying little or no attention to our aging bodies, our health or our physical fitness. I want to encourage all of us 40-50-60-somethings to maintain a healthy lifestyle and make physical fitness a regular part of our day. I urge you to visit your doctor for your yearly physical, grab a fitbit and get in your 10,000 steps a day. Keep your mind, body and spirit as strong and healthy as your business.

Développer une industrie ensemble — Un gage de succès pour tous

Par Ron Waddling

L'entreprise qui était avant tout un déménageur local de biens mobiliers s'est développée pour intégrer les déménagements de bureaux, la gestion des documents opérationnels, la manutention de produits particuliers, l'immobilier et l'énergie solaire, aussi bien au niveau local qu'international.

APRÈS plus de 60 ans, Peter Naylor a transféré la direction du groupe Tippet Richardson et il partage aujourd'hui ses réflexions sur ce qui a bien fonctionné pour lui.

En 1983, l'ACD d'origine était dissoute en raison de l'examen des activités de l'industrie par le gouvernement. À cette époque, les évaluations du gouvernement et les réponses des associations étaient plus qu'habituelles dans le cadre de la plupart des industries réglementées au Canada. En 1996, après avoir fait une pause, Peter retournait dans l'équipe de gestion de Tippet. Conscient que les déménageurs canadiens n'avaient aucune association nationale permettant à ceux-ci d'échanger sur des sujets d'intérêt mutuel ainsi que sur des problématiques et des opportunités communes, il regroupa d'autres parties intéressées afin de rétablir l'ACD à temps pour organiser un congrès annuel.

Cette action représente un trait caractéristique de la carrière de Peter Naylor. Le rassemblement de tous les membres d'une industrie ensemble, que ce soit au niveau local, national ou international, procure une image professionnelle tout en permettant des percées importantes dans l'avancement de la coopération entre tous les membres.

Depuis ses débuts en 1927, Tippet-Richardson s'est développée comme déménageur régional. L'entreprise, surnommée «The Friendly Mover», était reconnue pour son service exceptionnel. Le camion identifié par le logo du visage souriant de M. Tippet saluant son client en inclinant sa casquette est devenue une icône de l'industrie. Les activités principales de T-R se déroulaient en Ontario, puis se sont étendues en Alberta au milieu des années 70 pour finalement ajouter la Californie, la Colombie-

Peter Naylor

Britannique et les provinces de l'Atlantique dans les années 80.

Tippet-Richardson a poursuivi son évolution en réponse à la demande accrue de services diversifiés.

L'entreprise qui était avant tout un déménageur local de biens mobiliers s'est développée pour intégrer les déménagements de bureaux, la gestion des documents opérationnels, la manutention de produits particuliers, l'immobilier et l'énergie solaire, aussi bien au niveau local qu'international. Dans chacun de ces secteurs, Tippet-Richardson et Peter Naylor ont maintenu un niveau d'engagement exceptionnel afin d'offrir un service à la clientèle et une satisfaction du client d'excellente qualité. Le développement de partenariats d'affaires au Canada et dans le monde entier a permis de renforcer la position de la compagnie sur le marché.

Dans sa jeunesse, Peter a passé plusieurs étés à conduire des chargements pour T-R entre les États-Unis et le Canada et a toujours été convaincu que ces nations offraient l'opportunité d'un réseau opérationnel continu. Sous ses guides, T-R est devenue l'agent de transport routier transfrontalier reconnu de sa compagnie de transport. Grâce à son expertise et à ses connaissances du service transfrontalier et des douanes, Tippet-Richardson Limited ouvrira par la suite un bureau en Californie pour assurer le transport d'ordinateurs centraux entre la Silicon Valley et le Canada, en compétition avec les lignes aériennes afin de répondre aux exigences d'un calendrier serré de livraisons.

Déménagements outre-mer, caissons mobiles spéciaux, conteneurs pour transport ferroviaire, cédules d'expédition maritime, conteneurs groupés et conteneurs de 40 pieds exigeaient tous une plus grande connaissance que celle requise pour les déménagements locaux ou les déménagements sur de longues distances partout au Canada et aux États-Unis. T-R avait à la fois les compétences et la capacité d'en assurer le service. Il était essentiel pour Tippet-Richardson et la famille Naylor de travailler avec des entreprises internationales possédant une philosophie similaire.

Peter et sa défunte épouse Dolores purent améliorer leurs vies en développant des relations avec des partenaires partageant la même pensée et provenant de milieux culturels différents dans le cadre de leurs déplacements à travers le monde et où ils ont eu l'opportunité de rencontrer et de discuter avec de nombreux propriétaires et individus. Plusieurs de leurs premiers contacts prove-naient de visites antérieures faites par Russel et Norah, les parents de Peter, qui ont initialement représenté l'entreprise outre-mer.

La représentativité de la famille Naylor a été poursuivie avec Bruce Naylor, son frère, et son épouse Maureen. La famille Naylor demeure toujours bien connectée avec le secteur du transport international. Aujourd'hui, les enfants de Peter, Brenda et Kevin, représentent Tippet Richardson International ainsi que les valeurs, l'image internationale et l'hospitalité qui la caractérisent.

Avec les années, Peter a voyagé à destination de plusieurs congrès et de multiples activités de l'industrie afin de partager ses expériences d'affaires et son savoir acquis au contact de ses collègues d'entreprises de déménagement partenaires.

Il s'est toujours impliqué avec enthousiasme dans les discussions relatives au développement et à l'utilisation optimale des espaces d'entreposage et aux différentes structures que les autres entreprises adoptaient dans le but de gérer leurs affaires et leurs ressources par l'utilisation appropriée de leurs actifs immobiliers.

La gestion des documents opérationnels, à cette époque, n'était pas vraiment considérée comme un service normalement offert par un déménageur de biens mobiliers, mais représentait, en fait, une valeur ajoutée toute naturelle pour les gens d'affaires qui avaient besoin d'espaces d'entreposage sécurisés. Cet élément de sécurité exigeait que les entrepôts en douane pour l'international et les entrepôts domestiques de biens mobiliers offrent le maximum de protection pour l'entreposage de documents d'affaires de nature confidentielle.

Par une utilisation efficace de ses immeubles, Tippet-Richardson a créé un parc immobilier pouvant générer un profit additionnel grâce à l'acquisition et, ultimement, la vente d'immeubles.

Peter Naylor, sans aucune hésitation, a partagé ses idées avec ses collègues déménageurs du Canada et du monde entier.

Le fait de demeurer à la fine pointe des derniers changements technologiques a ouvert la porte à de nouvelles occasions d'affaires et l'entreprise a continuellement regardé de l'avant à la recherche de nouvelles opportunités. Dans les années 70 et 80, sa division des produits spéciaux a répondu aux besoins spécifiques liés au déménagement d'ordinateurs sophistiqués et de systèmes informatisés connexes.

De nos jours, les nouvelles caractéristiques des entrepôts de Tippet à Toronto intègrent des panneaux solaires rotatifs. Le virage vert constitue également une fonctionnalité évoluée des résultats obtenus par T-R dans le cadre de son niveau de service et de son adaptabilité.

L'implication dans le domaine de l'énergie solaire et l'utilisation du parc immobilier d'entrepôts afin de l'exploiter représentent une vision similaire à celle ayant permis la création d'une compagnie de gestion des documents opérationnels. La différence, aujourd'hui, est la prévoyance démontrée par T-R quant à l'approvisionnement d'énergie solaire. Le processus de réflexion évolue constamment en raison des requêtes de la société, du gouvernement, des entreprises et des environnementalistes pour savoir quelle est la nature de l'empreinte carbone que nous laissons ? À titre de chef de file dans ce domaine, la famille Naylor, est fière de l'effort consciencieux auquel elle a contribué.

Tout comme Peter s'est impliqué dans les affaires de son père, ses enfants, maintenant adultes, ont emboîté le pas et ont développé un intérêt pour les différentes divisions de l'entreprise. Brenda Naylor possède et exploite toujours TR Westcan Inc./Tippet-Richardson, basées à Vancouver et Calgary. Brenda est active dans plusieurs associations de l'industrie internationale et domestique et elle dirige l'entreprise de déménagement multiservices. Kevin Naylor dirige Tippet's World (anciennement T-R Overseas) et est basé à Toronto. Kevin continue de développer de nouvelles méthodes d'approche face à la demande de déménagements internationaux au moment où le monde devient plus petit et plus mobile que jamais. Scott Naylor assume le rôle de Peter en voyant aux destinées de Warehouse Properties Ltd. basée à Toronto.

Les déménageurs canadiens doivent se montrer heureux des nombreuses contributions de l'entreprise à une population sans cesse croissante. Peter, pendant plus de 60 ans, a retiré beaucoup de satisfaction à travailler de pair avec tous ses partenaires du secteur du déménagement et ses collègues, ce qui lui a permis de bénéficier d'une agréable qualité de vie.

«Mon expérience dans cette entreprise a été extrêmement gratifiante. Aujourd'hui, je suis fier de dire que j'ai contribué à ma communauté, développé des amitiés tant dans l'industrie qu'au niveau international, construit des entrepôts en mettant l'accent sur la versatilité en vue d'opportunités futures, adopté le virage vert et que je vais transmettre tous ces accomplissements à mes enfants», a déclaré Peter.

notre conférence annuelle et dîner de remise des prix de l'ACD (du 20 au 22 novembre). Progresser avec nos partenaires sera le thème de la conférence de cette année qui se tiendra à Toronto. Au nom de l'association, j'aimerais remercier individuellement chacun de nos fournisseurs/partenaires pour leur contribution à l'ACD. J'en profite pour encourager nos membres déménageurs à lancer l'invitation à leurs fournisseurs non membres d'adhérer à notre association.

Dans un tout autre ordre d'idée, j'aimerais prendre un moment pour discuter de la santé de notre industrie et, non, je ne fais pas référence ici à nos résultats financiers. Je parle plutôt de la santé physique de nos membres. Chaque année, nous nous réunissons lors d'événements de réseautage (tels que ceux dont j'ai fait mention précédemment) et, il est flagrant de constater que la majeure partie des participants ne se situent pas dans la trentaine. La plupart d'entre nous avons grisonné ou, comme dans mon cas, ont très peu de cheveux. La vérité, mes amis, c'est que notre industrie est dirigée par des gens d'expérience.

L'expérience et l'âge vont de pair. Chacun d'entre nous a fait ce qu'il fallait pour s'assurer du bon état de santé de son entreprise et de notre industrie. Nous travaillons tous de longues heures dans des conditions stressantes, et ce, avec un minimum de sommeil; nous cherchons constamment à faire progresser nos affaires, en mangeant sur le pouce et en portant très peu d'attention, voire pas du tout, à notre corps qui vieillit, à notre santé ou à notre condition physique. Je tiens à encourager chacun d'entre nous, ceux se situant dans la gamme d'âge de 40-70, à maintenir un mode de vie sain et à intégrer l'activité physique dans leur routine quotidienne. Je vous conjure de visiter votre médecin pour votre examen annuel, de vous procurer une application pour analyser votre activité physique et de commencer à effectuer vos 10 000 pas par jour. Gardez votre tête, votre corps et votre esprit aussi en santé que l'est votre entreprise.

LaPalm Moving: One Hundred Years of Moving (1915-2015)

LAPALM MOVING just celebrated 100 years of moving! Since 1915 their trucks and movers have been serving the Quinte area. With offices located in Belleville and Kingston Ontario they are a proud member of the Allied Van Lines family and one of the oldest moving companies in Canada.

No doubt times have changed from the days of moving in an open truck on dirt roads with little suspension. Today their fleet consists of various-sized vehicles to suit every type of move, however, they admit that heat, air conditioning and GPS are welcome additions to the cabs of their trucks! The one thing that hasn't changed over the years is the dedication their employees have to making sure each customer is happy with their service. Hard work, core values, and commitment to their community are the reasons they are a regular recipient of the Allied "Agent of the Year" award in their division.

LaPalm Moving is a full service moving and storage company that can move families across the street, across Canada or around the globe. "We may have moved your parents and your grandparents so you can check with them for a reference! We have been helping relocate people in the Quinte area for 100 years, and it is our hope to Keep Moving for another 100!" comments company President Jim Best.

LaPalm Moving is a proud long-term member of the Canadian Association of Movers and is designated as a Certified Canadian Mover under CAM's program. You can visit CAM's website, www.mover.net, to find their contact information, or they can be contacted in Belleville, ON at 613-962-9557 and in Kingston, ON at 613-549-0976 or visit their website at www.lapalm-moving.com.

LaPalm Moving: Cent ans de déménagement (1915-2015)

LAPALM MOVING vient tout juste de célébrer 100 ans de déménagement! Depuis 1915, les camions et les déménageurs de cette entreprise ont desservi la région de Quinte. Dotée de bureaux situés à Belleville et à Kingston en Ontario, cette entreprise est fière d'être membre de la famille d'Allied Van Lines et l'une des plus anciennes compagnies de déménagement au Canada.

Nul doute que les temps ont changé depuis les jours où un déménagement était effectué dans un fourgon à toit ouvert doté de peu de suspension sur des routes de terre. Aujourd'hui, la flotte de l'entreprise est constituée de véhicules de différents formats afin de répondre à différents types de transport, quoi qu'ils reconnaissent que le chauffage, la climatisation et les GPS représentent des ajouts plus que bienvenus dans les cabines de leurs camions! L'unique chose qui n'a pas changé au cours de toutes ces années est le dévouement démontré par leurs employés afin de s'assurer que chaque client soit satisfait du service reçu. Le travail acharné, des valeurs fondamentales et un engagement envers leur communauté sont les raisons pour lesquelles ils sont des récipiendaires réguliers du prix «Agent de l'année» d'Allied dans leur division.

LaPalm Moving est une entreprise de déménagement et d'entreposage proposant des services complets qui peut déménager les familles sur la rue opposée, partout au Canada ou dans le monde. «Il se peut que nous ayons déménagé vos parents et vos grands-parents, vous pouvez donc vérifier avec eux pour de bonnes références! Nous avons contribué à relocaliser des gens dans la région de Quinte depuis 100 ans et nous espérons que nous pourrions continuer à le faire pendant encore 100 ans!», mentionne le président de l'entreprise, Jim Best.

LaPalm Moving est fière d'être un membre de longue date de l'Association Canadienne des Déménageurs et est identifiée à titre de déménageur canadien certifié dans le cadre du programme de l'ACD. # Ross Mackie Awarded North American Van Lines Lifetime Achievement Award

ROSS MACKIE was presented with the Dan Robertson Lifetime Achievement Award, at the North American Van Lines Convention in San Diego, California on October 21, 2015. As the first recipient of this prestigious award, Ross Mackie was honoured by his colleagues for his over sixty years of commitment and dedication to the moving industry throughout North America.

Mackie the Mover was founded in 1928, by Ross's parents, Amanda and Merle who began the moving business out of their small home in Oshawa. At an early age, Ross began helping at the company by washing the family's three trucks after school. Eager to drive, Ross was sent to Whitehorse, Yukon in 1951 at the age of 17 to move household furniture for a military employee. "The early days were tough driving over gravel roads without the heaters and air conditioners that are standard in today's trucks, but I loved it and wanted to spend the rest of my life in the trucking industry," stated Ross.

In 1952, Merle and Amanda Mackie were approached by North American Van Lines to start an agency in Canada. Ross says, "This was a turning point that allowed an excellent opportunity to expand the business into what we are today." As one of the founding North American Van Line agents in Canada, Mackie Moving and Storage is one of the largest privately owned moving companies in Canada.

Ross credits the success of Mackie Moving Systems to his parents, his sister Marilyn, his sons Norman, Paul, Dean, Scott and their families, as well as their many dedicated employees and loyal customers and suppliers. Ross said "I still love going into work to meet with employees and customers. It has been the people who I have met along the way that have made this a thrilling lifetime experience."

Ross Mackie reçoit le Lifetime Achievement Award de North American Van Lines

ROSS MACKIE a reçu le Dan Robertson Lifetime Achievement Award lors du congrès de North American Van Lines tenu le 21 octobre 2015 à San Diego, Californie. À titre de premier récipiendaire de cette prestigieuse récompense, Ross Mackie a été honoré par ses collègues pour son engagement de plus de 60 ans ainsi que son dévouement envers l'industrie du déménagement de toute l'Amérique du Nord.

L'entreprise Mackie the Mover a été fondée en 1928 par les parents de Ross, Amanda et Merle, qui ont démarré l'entreprise de déménagement à partir de leur petite résidence d'Oshawa. Très jeune, Ross a commencé à aider dans l'entreprise en lavant les trois camions de l'entreprise familiale après l'école. En 1951, à l'âge de 17 ans et désireux de conduire, Ross a été envoyé à Whitehorse au Yukon pour déménager les meubles et les biens mobiliers d'un militaire. "Les premiers temps furent difficiles car il fallait conduire sur des routes de gravier sans les chaufferettes et les appareils de climatisation que l'on retrouve normalement dans les camions d'aujourd'hui, mais j'ai adoré ça et je désirais passer le reste de ma vie dans l'industrie du camionnage", a déclaré Ross.

En 1952, Merle et Amanda Mackie furent approchés par North American Van Lines pour implanter une agence au Canada. Ross indique que "Ce fut un point tournant qui nous a procuré une excellente opportunité de développer l'entreprise pour en faire ce que nous sommes aujourd'hui." À titre de l'un des premiers agents de North American Van Line au Canada, Mackie Moving and Storage est l'une des plus importantes entreprises de déménagement privées au Canada.

Ross donne tout le crédit du succès de Mackie Moving Systems à ses parents, à sa sœur Marilyn, à ses fils, Norman, Paul, Dean et Scott ainsi qu'à leurs familles, tout autant qu'à leurs nombreux employés dévoués et à leurs fidèles clients et fournisseurs. Ross mentionne : "J'adore toujours me rendre au travail pour y rencontrer employés et clients. Ce sont tous ces gens que j'ai rencontrés durant tout ce temps qui ont contribué à en faire une expérience de vie unique."

Ross Mackie (au centre) reçoit le North American Van Lines Lifetime Achievement Award. La présentation était faite par (de g. à dr.) Bill Lyon (Président, Agent Networks), Scott Mackie, Dean Mackie, Ross, Paul Mackie, Norm Mackie et Dan Robertson (V.-P./DG de North American Van Lines à la retraite).

Matco Moving Solutions Celebrates 50 Years in Business

Credits Customer Trust and Superior Service for its Longevity

When the Dempster Highway officially opened in 1979, Matco made history when it operated the first moving truck to drive down it.

MATCO MOVING SOLUTIONS is celebrating 50 years of business in Canada this year. Established in 1966, in Norman Wells, Northwest Territories, Matco was among the first transportation companies to serve the region. Today, Matco has become a key player in the area's residential and commercial moving sector with eight locations in Alberta, the Northwest Territories and Yukon, providing door-to-door residential and commercial moving services to virtually anywhere in the world, as well as storage solutions.

"Fifty years in business is a significant milestone for any company," said Wayne Wishloff, vice-president and general manager, Matco Moving Solutions, "but, for a company in the moving business, it's a rare achievement. Matco has stood the test of time for two key reasons; first, we have always focused on the customers' voice and, second, when we move our customers' personal effects we treat them as our own. Each employee understands what it means to hand over one's personal property to a stranger and rely on them to deliver it to their dream home, damage-free. Over the years, we've earned the trust of many families in the community and it's a great feeling to know we've been part of something important."

Matco started out as a small, family-owned business known as the Mid-Artic Transportation Company – Matco – when it was founded in May 1966. Two brothers and their brother-in-law saw a business opportunity in the region's booming oil and gas sector and the need for local trucking and transportation services.

Matco was one of the first operators to service the isolated oil and gas exploration crews working offshore and made trips up to the Beaufort Sea, crossing frozen oceans and ice roads, often in blizzards, to deliver supplies. When the Dempster Highway officially opened in 1979, Matco made history when it operated the first moving truck to drive down it.

As the region continued to develop, so did Matco. In 2013, Matco was acquired by Manitoulin Transport, a member of the Manitoulin Group of Companies, which sought to further strengthen its coverage in Canada's West and expand into the growing residential and commercial goods relocation business.

"At the 50-year mark, it's time to reflect on how far we've come as a company and where we plan to go," said Don Goodwill, president, Matco. "Matco has seen some big changes in customer needs over the years and has always adapted accordingly.

Today, Matco is a full-service, global moving company that can get households and businesses safely across the province, or around the world, with ease. As we look to the future, we will continue to do whatever it takes to meet customers' needs, including investing further in technology to provide instantaneous service and expanding our use of digital media. In the next few years, we will see some exciting developments for Matco and our customers and we look forward to serving more communities as we strive to become the premier mover in Alberta."

Matco Moving Solutions célèbre 50 ans d'existence

En raison de sa relation de confiance avec les clients et d'un service de qualité supérieure

Avec l'ouverture officielle de l'autoroute Dempster en 1979, Matco est entrée dans l'histoire en réalisant le premier déménagement par camion à y passer.

CETTE ANNÉE, Matco Moving Solutions célèbre 50 ans d'existence au Canada. Établie en 1966, à Norman Wells dans les Territoires du Nord-Ouest, Matco fut l'une des premières entreprises de transport à desservir cette région. Aujourd'hui, Matco est devenue un joueur clé de cette région dans le secteur du déménagement résidentiel et commercial grâce à ses huit emplacements en Alberta, dans les Territoires du Nord-Ouest et au Yukon, en offrant des services de déménagement résidentiel et commercial de porte à porte à destination de presque toutes les destinations dans le monde ainsi que des solutions d'entreposage.

« Cinquante ans en affaires se veut un jalon significatif pour n'importe quelle compagnie, mentionne Wayne Wishloff, vice-président et directeur général chez Matco Moving Solutions, mais, pour une entreprise œuvrant dans l'industrie du déménagement, il s'agit d'un succès remarquable. Matco a résisté à l'épreuve du temps pour deux raisons clés; premièrement, nous avons toujours focalisé sur l'écoute du client et, deuxièmement, lorsque nous déménageons les effets personnels de nos clients, nous les traitons comme s'ils étaient nôtres. Chacun de nos employés comprend bien l'importance que le client attribue au fait de remettre ses possessions personnelles à un étranger et à s'en remettre à celui-ci pour les apporter intacts dans leur maison de rêve. Avec les années, nous avons mérité la confiance de plusieurs familles dans cette communauté et c'est très valorisant de savoir que nous avons participé à un événement marquant. »

Lors de sa fondation au mois de mai 1966, Matco était une petite entreprise privée connue sous le nom de Mid-Artic Transportation Company (Matco). Deux frères et leur beau-frère ont perçu un potentiel d'affaires dans le secteur pétrolier de cette région ainsi que le besoin de services locaux de camionnage et de transport. Matco fut l'un des premiers exploitants à desservir les équipes de prospection pétrolière et gazière qui étaient isolées et à effectuer des voyages jusqu'à la mer de Beaufort, en traversant des océans gelés et des routes glacées pour livrer du matériel et ce, souvent lors de blizzards. Avec l'ouverture officielle de l'autoroute Dempster en 1979, Matco est entrée dans l'histoire en réalisant le premier déménagement par camion à y passer.

Tandis que la région continuait de se développer, Matco en fit tout autant. En 2013, Matco fut acquise par Manitoulin Transport, un membre du Groupe Manitoulin, qui cherchait alors à étendre sa couverture géographique dans l'Ouest du Canada et à développer ses activités dans le secteur croissant de la relocalisation de biens résidentiels et commerciaux.

« À ce jalon que représente ces 50 ans, le temps est

venu de réfléchir sur le chemin parcouru par notre compagnie et quelle direction nous entendons prendre », a indiqué Don Goodwill, le président de Matco.

« Avec les années, Matco a constaté quelques changements significatifs relativement aux besoins des clients et s'est toujours adaptée en conséquence. Aujourd'hui, Matco est une entreprise de déménagement multiservices d'envergure internationale qui peut desservir facilement les résidences et les entreprises de façon sécuritaire et ce, dans toutes les provinces ou même autour du monde. Au moment où nous nous tournons vers l'avenir, nous envisageons de continuer à faire tout ce qui est requis pour répondre aux besoins de nos clients, y compris d'investir encore davantage dans la technologie afin d'offrir un service instantané et d'accroître notre utilisation des ressources numériques. D'ici les prochaines années, nous constaterons des développements intéressants, à la fois pour Matco et pour nos clients, et nous visons à devenir la plus importante compagnie de déménagement en Alberta. »

*Le siège social de Matco Moving Solutions est basé à Edmonton et l'entreprise possède des succursales à Calgary, Fort McMurray, Inuvik, Norman Wells, Yellowknife, Hay River et Whitehorse tout en étant membre en règle de l'ACD et de l'International Association of Movers. # Building Partnerships in Ottawa

THIS was just some of the feedback CAM received about its annual conference just held in Ottawa on November 1–3, 2015.

CAM traditionally has held its conference in Toronto because the membership is strongest in Ontario, and particularly in the GTA, so attendance is strongest. However, after the demonstrated success of our conference in Vancouver in 2013 (held in conjunction with the International Association of Mover's convention), we learned that CAM's members will show their support for CAM and its events outside of its Toronto-based comfort zone. The turnout at this conference in our nation's capital was better than expected, topping last year's numbers.

CAM's annual conference is a significant industry event designed to provide an opportunity for members to gain practical business management information that's tailored specifically to meet their special needs as household goods moving professionals. This year, our program whose theme was "Better Partnerships for Better Business" was very compelling. Developing effective relationships with industry stakeholders (such as government, enterprises that service the industry, movers and consumers) can help build a business and improve corporate and service-delivery practices.

A variety of industry professionals presented their views on the challenges faced by and the future of our industry in Ottawa and offered some ideas on how to respond to those challenges. Most of the presentations can be viewed in the Events Archive on CAM's website.

The conference was kicked off with a warm welcome from Ottawa's Deputy Mayor, Bob Monette.

Replacing the Ontario Ministry of Government and Consumer Services Minister as keynote speaker to set the agenda for the conference was Deputy Minister, Angela Coke. She voiced the Ministry's concern about consumer rights and the need for transparency in the marketplace where business can thrive while Ontarians are treated fairly. She commented on the Ministry's recently-published report on Ontario's Household Moving Industry that was commissioned to help them better understand the issues of the business in Ontario and to develop a compliance strategy to respond to the issue of rogue businesses.

Representatives of the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) and the Inter-departmental Committee representing the Canadian Department of National Defence and Central Removal Services provided their respective Federal Government perspectives on relocating personal household effects domestically and internationally.

An ad hoc committee of CAM members has been meeting with representatives of the CBSA during the last year change the current custom-clearance practices for people relocating into Canada.

David Bradley who is the President and CEO of both the Canadian Trucking Alliance and the Ontario Trucking Association provided a highly-informative view of the challenges faced by and future of the transportation industry in Canada. Hours of work and the driver shortage highlighted the day. Not only do these affect the freight industry but also moving and storage in Canada. He discussed the changes that are coming down the pipe and the effect that this will have on the entire industry in North America indicating that more and more responsibility is being left to the driver at the end of day.

The ever-popular panel discussion among van line specialists provided attendees with some ideas about defining and differentiating their company, product or service in the marketplace.

Practical advice was provided for businesses on the importance of having strategies in place to effectively respond to employees' needs and control costs – like group benefits programs, essential human resource management tools and workplace injury claims policies – by Bryan McLoughlin of The GPS Consulting

Beyond the sessions, attendees had considerable opportunity to network with each other – to share ideas and develop new business relationships. The Sunday Evening Reception had a great turnout which set a highly collegial mood for the rest of the conference.

Our extremely popular Annual Awards Dinner was once again a large gathering surpassing attendance numbers of the last two years. It was a humbling experience to hear about the accomplishments of the awardees being honoured by their colleagues in the industry.

A few well-received changes were introduced in the conference program this year. A couple of these changes were prompted by past suggestions that we received mostly from our supplier members who asked for more opportunities to showcase their products and services. So this year we provided opportunities for sponsorship as well as for enhanced traffic through the trade show. These innovations worked very well based on the enthusiastic response from the van lines, suppliers and movers.

The Association thanks the conference committee for their hard work in putting the program together. Their involvement, along with the support of Canada's leading van lines, top industry suppliers and the members and industry colleagues who attend, help to strengthen CAM.

See you at the conference on November 20–22 in Toronto, ON!

Développer des partenariats à Ottawa

«Ces conférences s'améliorent d'année en année — félicitations!»

CE N'EST qu'un des commentaires reçus par l'ACD relativement à sa conférence annuelle qui s'est déroulée à Ottawa du 1<sup>er</sup> au 3 novembre 2015.

Traditionnellement, l'ACD tenait sa conférence à Toronto en raison du niveau élevé de membres en Ontario, particulièrement dans la grande région de Toronto, afin de bénéficier d'un taux de participation élevé. Cependant, suite au succès obtenu avec notre conférence de 2013 à Vancouver (tenue de pair avec la conférence de l'International Association of Movers), nous avons constaté que les membres de l'ACD démontraient tout de même leur soutien envers l'ACD et ses activités hors de sa zone de confort que représentait la région de Toronto. La participation à cette conférence tenue dans la région de la capitale nationale fut supérieure à celle anticipée, égalant même les résultats de l'année précédente.

mation pertinente sur la gestion des affaires et adaptée spécifiquement pour répondre aux besoins particuliers des professionnels de l'industrie du déménagement des biens ménagers. Cette année, notre programme dont le thème était De meilleurs partenariats pour un meilleur environnement d'affaires était très complet. Le fait de développer des relations d'affaires efficaces avec les intervenants de l'industrie (gouvernement, entreprises desservant l'industrie, déménageurs et consommateurs) peut contribuer à développer une entreprise et à améliorer ses bonnes pratiques corporatives et de services, incluant la livraison.

À Ottawa, plusieurs professionnels de l'industrie ont présenté leurs visions des défis et du futur de notre industrie et ont proposé quelques idées sur les façons de répondre à ces défis. La plupart des présentations peuvent être visionnées dans la section des archives des événements sur le site Web de l'ACD.

La conférence a débuté avec un accueil chaleureux du maire suppléant d'Ottawa, Bob Monette.

Madame Angela Coke, sous-ministre, a remplacé le Ministre des Services gouvernementaux et des Services aux consommateurs, à titre de conférencière principale en ouverture de la conférence. Elle a souligné les préoccupations du ministre à l'égard des droits du consommateur et du besoin de transparence dans un marché où les entreprises peuvent prospérer tout en s'assurant que les Ontariens soient traités équitablement. Elle a commenté le récent rapport publié par le ministre relativement à l'Industrie du déménagement des biens mobiliers en Ontario qui a été commandé dans le but d'aider le ministre à mieux comprendre les problématiques de ce secteur d'affaires en Ontario et à développer une stratégie à long terme permettant de répondre adéquatement à la problématique des entreprises frauduleuses.

riel représentant le Ministère de la Défense nationale du Canada et du Service central de déménagement ont présenté le point de vue du gouvernement fédéral sur la relocalisation des biens ménagers personnels au Canada et à l'étranger.

Un comité spécial formé de membres de l'ACD a rencontré des représentants de l'ASFC au cours de la dernière année dans le but de modifier les pratiques actuelles de dédouanement relativement aux personnes étant relocalisées au Canada.

David Bradley, à la fois président et chef de la direction de la Canadian Trucking Alliance et de l'Ontario Trucking Association a offert un aperçu très clair des défis auxquels est confrontée l'industrie du transport au Canada ainsi que sur le futur de cette dernière. Le sujet des heures de travail ainsi que celui de la pénurie de chauffeurs ont complété la journée. Non seulement ces sujets affectent-ils l'industrie du transport mais également celle du déménagement et de l'entreposage au Canada. Il a commenté les changements qui se profilent à l'horizon ainsi que leur impact sur toute l'industrie en Amérique du Nord, soulignant que de plus en plus de responsabilités reposent ultimement sur les épaules des chauffeurs.

La toujours populaire table ronde composée de spécialistes de compagnies de transport a contribué à proposer aux participants quelques suggestions relativement aux diverses façons de mieux définir et différencier leur entreprise ainsi que leurs produits et services offerts sur le marché.

Bryan McLoughlin de GPS Consulting Group & Insurance Agencies Inc. et Greg Sathmary de l'Industrial Mediation Professional Corporation ont offert des conseils pratiques aux entreprises présentes relativement à l'importance de mettre en place des stratégies permettant de répondre efficacement aux besoins des employés ainsi que sur le contrôle des coûts – comme des programmes d'avantages sociaux collectifs, des outils de gestion des ressources humaines essentiels et des politiques de traitement des réclamations relatives aux accidents du travail.

Au-delà de ces sessions, les participants ont amplement bénéficié de l'opportunité de réseautage qui leur était offerte – dans le but de partager des idées et de développer de nouvelles relations d'affaires. La réception du dimanche soir a connu une excellente participation qui a certes contribué à mettre en place un esprit de collégialité qui a été présent tout au long de la conférence.

Notre très populaire dîner de remise des prix a encore fait l'objet d'un haut niveau de participation, dépassant même les résultats obtenus lors des deux dernières années. Ce fut une belle leçon d'humilité d'en apprendre plus sur les réalisations des lauréats honorés par leurs collègues de l'industrie.

Quelques changements bien reçus ont été intégrés dans le programme de la conférence de cette année. Certains de ces changements ont été générés grâce aux suggestions que nous avons précédemment reçues principalement de nos membres fournisseurs qui souhaitaient bénéficier de plus d'opportunités d'afficher leurs produits et services. Cette année, nous avons donc offert des opportunités accrues pour les commandites ainsi que pour accroître l'achalandage au salon commercial. Ces innovations se sont avérées fructueuses si l'on en croit la réponse enthousiaste reçue des compagnies de transport, des fournisseurs et des déménageurs.

L'Association tient à remercier les membres du comité de la conférence pour leurs efforts consacrés à la mise en place du programme. L'implication du comité et le support reçu des compagnies de transport, des fournisseurs clés ainsi que des membres et de nos collègues de l'industrie ont contribué au renforcement de l'ACD.

Au plaisir de vous retrouver à la conférence qui se tiendra du 20 au 22 novembre à Toronto en Ontario!

prepare for intense media exposure when a disaster occurs, to advise you on how to maintain and improve your driver safety practices and ratings and to prepare you for new electronic logging practices Canadian drivers need to understand.
