CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE/MESSAGE DU PRÉSIDENT DU CONSEIL

I AM grateful to have the opportunity to serve as chairman of CAM. I would like to thank Perry Thorne for the accomplishments during his term as chairman even though he had to endure changing of presidents three times. Marian McGuire deserves a great deal of credit as she was the constant throughout the changes.

I look forward to working with Nancy Irvine, our new president who coincidentally was appointed to this position in conjunction with my appointment. She brings with her a very diverse background and a refreshing change. You are likely already aware of some significant developments at CAM including a new presence on social media, the increased frequency of our monthly newsletter Mover's Edge to twice a month, new Facebook event pages for CAM's conference and golf tournament, and improvements in our sponsorship packages for these marquee events.

We will continue to pursue, expose and, hopefully, help to prosecute rogue movers. As these "fake movers" become craftier, our task becomes even more challenging. Thanks to some CAM members, media, and individual police investigators, we have helped some very unfortunate consumers to get their shipments returned to them. Please take the time to read our feature article on Project Haul.

I also have the privilege of working with a very diverse group of committees who are extremely active and engaged. Each team is energized and finding new and valuable ways of enhancing your CAM membership. We thank all of our members who work on these committees.

Our financial viability is mostly based on member fees so it will be my goal to increase the membership, domestically and internationally. A strong mover contingent in the Association will attract more suppliers to join CAM and offer their products and services to members. Our supplier members are strong supporters of CAM and its activities – both financially and by attendance and, without them, CAM could not deliver its variety of programs and services. I encourage members to support CAM's suppliers as much as possible as they are a vital part of our organization.

JE SUIS reconnaissant d'avoir l'opportunité de servir à titre de président du conseil d'administration de l'ACD. Je voudrais remercier Perry Thorne pour le travail accompli au cours de son mandat, même si celui-ci a dû faire face à trois changements de président. Marian McGuire mérite beaucoup de crédit car elle a su assurer la stabilité de l'association dans cette période de changements.

Je me réjouis à l'avance de travailler avec Nancy Irvine, notre nouvelle présidente qui, par un concours de circonstances, a été confirmée dans sa position en même temps que moi. Elle apporte avec elle une expertise diversifiée ainsi qu'un vent de changement rafraîchissant. Vous êtes fort probablement déjà au courant de certains développements significatifs à l'ACD, incluant une nouvelle présence sur les médias sociaux, une fréquence accrue de notre infolettre mensuelle, Le déménageur averti, maintenant publiée deux fois par mois, nos nouvelles pages d'événements Facebook relativement à notre conférence annuelle et à notre tournoi de golf ainsi que les améliorations apportées à nos forfaits de commandites pour ces événements de marque.

Nous continuerons à poursuivre, exposer et, je l'espère, à traduire en justice les déménageurs malhonnêtes. Au moment où ces «pseudo déménageurs» deviennent plus rusés, notre tâche représente ainsi encore plus un véritable défi. Grâce en grande partie à certains membres de l'ACD, aux médias ainsi qu'aux enquêteurs policiers impliqués, nous avons aidé certains consommateurs malchanceux à recouvrir leurs cargaisons de biens. Veuillez prendre le temps de lire notre article de fond sur le Projet Haul.

J'ai également le privilège de travailler avec un groupe de comités très diversifiés qui sont extrêmement actifs et engagés. Chaque équipe est dynamique et s'efforce de trouver de nouvelles façons, encore plus intéressantes, d'améliorer votre adhésion à l'ACD. Nous remercions tous nos membres qui travaillent à l'intérieur de ces comités.

Notre viabilité financière repose presque essentiellement sur les frais d'adhésion de nos membres et c'est pourquoi mon but sera d'augmenter le nombre d'adhésion à notre association, autant au niveau local qu'au niveau international. Un contingent plus important de déménageurs dans l'association attirera encore plus de fournisseurs afin que ceux-ci, à leur tour, se joignent à

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE/MESSAGE DE LA PRÉSIDENTE

AT THE 22nd annual conference in Montréal, we learned about change and how to adapt to it. It wasn't just the moving companies that our speakers were talking about. CAM was about to have changes as well.

The thing about change is that you often can't do it on your own ... you need to be bold and ask for support. So, we've been renewing old partnerships and solidifying new ones.

Our key line about 'contacting CAM to find a trusted, reliable mover' needs to be spread out further than our own sphere. CAM has teamed up with the Better Business Bureaus of Canada and together we've designed two simple messages that both organizations started using in March to encourage consumers to do their homework before selecting a mover. I encourage you to use the CAM/BBB messages yourself with your potential customers – your relationship with CAM (and thus the BBB) only strengthens your viability as a strong choice to be their mover.

CAM has also renewed its involvement with the National Council of Moving Associations. We will be sitting at the table with the 27 State moving associations, AMSA and IAM, collaborating on a wide variety of topics including regulatory and legislative issues and changes, electronic logging devices, marijuana decriminalization and its impact on our workforce, and ideas for addressing the aging of our workforce and attracting young people to our industry. With the NCMA, we will get additional tools and relationships we need to help us be of better service to our members. You will see timely updates on our bi-monthly e-newsletter, Mover's Edge throughout the year.

And finally, our most important partnership is with you. I have had the opportunity to meet in person and talk to many of you through email or phone. You have wonderful ideas that CAM can act upon to enhance our membership and intra-membership relationships. Building a stronger, more viable association involves keeping it fresh and we are working on making your ideas reality.

At a time when unscrupulous rogue movers are discrediting the moving business, it is crucial for our industry and our membership to get the word out, through social media, traditional media, and by any other way we can, that CAM members are trusted, reliable movers that will relocate their customers fairly, honestly and with integrity. With these initial partnerships, and through more to come, we can collaboratively get the message out there.

Like CAM, follow CAM and help us to help you.

Nancy Irvine
President

LORS DE notre 22^e conférence annuelle à Montréal, nous avons appris beaucoup de choses relativement au changement et comment s'y adapter. Nos conférenciers invités ne parlaient pas seulement des compagnies de déménagement. L'ACD était alors sur le point de vivre de grands changements également.

Le plus désolant à propos du changement est que, bien souvent, vous ne pouvez le faire par vous-même... vous devez faire preuve d'audace et demander de l'assistance. C'est donc pourquoi nous avons renouvelé d'anciens partenariats et solidifié de nouveaux.

Notre message clé suggérant «de contacter l'ACD pour trouver un déménageur réputé et fiable» doit être véhiculé bien au-delà de notre champ de compétence habituel. L'ACD s'est associée avec les Bureaux d'éthique du Canada (Better Business Bureau) et, ensemble, nous avons conçu deux messages bien simples que les deux organisations ont commencé à utiliser au mois de mars dans le but d'encourager les consommateurs à bien faire leurs devoirs avant de sélectionner un déménageur. Je vous encourage à utiliser vous aussi les messages de l'ACD/BBB avec vos clients potentiels – votre relation avec l'ACD (et donc, avec les BBBs) ne fait que renforcer votre présence afin que vous représentiez un excellent choix de déménageur pour ceux-ci.

L'ACD a également renouvelé son implication avec le National Council of Moving Associations (NCMA). Nous nous assoirons à la même table que les associations de déménagement de 27 états, l'AMSA et l'IAM en collaborant sur une vaste gamme de sujets incluant des aspects et des changements réglementaires et législatifs, les dispositifs d'enregistrement électroniques, la décriminalisation de la marijuana et ses impacts potentiels sur nos travailleurs, ainsi que différentes idées pour traiter des questions relatives au vieillissement de notre force de travail et aux façons d'attirer des jeunes dans notre industrie. Avec le NCMA, nous aurons accès à des outils additionnels et à de nouvelles relations qui nous sont nécessaires afin de nous aider à offrir un meilleur service à nos membres. Vous trouverez des mises à jour ponctuelles dans nos infolettres bimensuelles, Le déménageur averti, tout au long de l'année.

Et finalement, notre plus important partenariat est avec vous. J'ai eu l'opportunité de rencontrer en personne et de discuter avec plusieurs d'entre vous par courriel ou par téléphone. Vous avez des idées géniales sur lesquelles peut se baser l'ACD afin d'améliorer la présence de nos membres ainsi que les relations d'affaires entre les membres. Développer une association à la fois plus forte et plus

Goods Held Hostage by Rogue Mover Located by Police Project Haul

- A Bad Situation Made Better by CAM Members

By Kim Biggar

ROGUE MOVERS are a nightmare for both the customers they prey on and the many reputable movers across Canada that are affected when the industry's public image takes a beating. Despite the efforts of groups including the Canadian Association of Movers (CAM) and Better Business Bureaus (BBB), consumers have certainly not all heard the message to choose their movers with care.

The outcome of hiring a rogue mover can be devastating. Such movers are known to hold customers' belongings "hostage" until the customers make large payments well beyond their contract amounts. Their fraudulent activity and sloppy handling of goods create victims of customers.

Last year, several moving companies in Toronto – including Landmark Van Lines, Green Moving and Storage, Capital Moving and Ryder Moving – made the news after Toronto police received numerous complaints from people about their services. The companies, all owned by the same family, were accused of holding customers' household goods pending their payments of exorbitant fees that the companies said were owing for handling weight above what was estimated for the moves.

In April 2017, investigators in the Financial Crimes Unit of the Toronto Police Service undertook an exhaustive investigation; including the interview of approximately a dozen victims Canada-wide, who had lodged complaints against one of the four moving companies. These were all people whose goods were being held because inflated fees had not been paid. Making bad situations worse, company representatives threatened to auction off the held goods if payments were not received.

Fortunately for two families in New Brunswick, police investigators in Project Haul, as the case became known, located and seized their belongings.

Krista Happeney hired Green Moving and Storage in the fall of 2016 to move her goods from Alberta to New Brunswick. The goods didn't arrive, but an invoice for an extra $2,100 did. After wrangling with the company for some time without success, Happeney contacted the police.

New Brunswick couple Joseph and Emily McCutcheon, who also moved from Alberta using Green Moving and Storage, likewise spent months, starting after their move date in November 2016, trying to get their belongings from the mover, which had increased its price post service from $2,400 to $15,800. The McCutcheons lived with borrowed furniture and feared that they'd never see their valued family mementos again.

After obtaining judicial authorization, on May 17, 2017, Toronto police conducted a search warrant, raided a storage facility linked to the suspects and their associated companies and removed goods belonging to three customers, including the two New Brunswick families. Additional evidence at the scene led police to dozens of new potential victims and an additional 85 loads of goods.

Two weeks later, on May 31, CTV News Atlantic aired a storyⁱ about Happeney's experience; at that point, she was still without her belongings.

Rogue movers continue to give the moving industry a bad name and, what's worse, they are taking business away from reputable movers like us

The Moving Industry Steps in to Help

The story caught the attention of Premiere Van Lines Fredericton in nearby Oromocto, N.B. The company got in touch with Mike Cameron, the CTV reporter who had interviewed Happeney, offering to move her things – at no charge – from Toronto on a backhaul trip from the area. Happeney, naturally, was ecstatic about this development, and put Premiere staff in contact with Corporal Amanda Ashbridge, lead investigator in the Toronto case, to make arrangements for the shipment.

Ashbridge asked Premiere's Managing Partner Gregg Doucette and Operations Manager Amanda Scrimgeour if the truck picking up Happeney's goods might also accommodate the belongings of the McCutcheons. Premiere, with the help of Atlas Van Lines, was thus set to come to the rescue for both families. Like Happeney, the McCutcheons were thrilled by the offer.

On June 7, CTV aired reporter Mike Cameron's interview with Emily and Joseph McCutcheon.¹¹ That same day, a team of police officers in Toronto helped the Premiere driver, Don Lorette, load the belongings of both families on his truck. Within days, the goods were delivered to two very happy – and relieved – households.

Unfortunately, but not surprisingly, the goods had been very poorly stored, in areas where they suffered damage from exposure to weather, dirt and vermin, as well as haphazard stacking which lead to further damage; items such as mattresses were not wrapped and at least one had to be disposed of. Employees of Atlas Canada, the van line of which Premiere Fredericton is a Platinum Award-winning agent, were present to document and photograph the condition of the shipments.

Further, the two shipments were weighed, at the request of the police, and both were found to be well under the weight reported and billed for by the mover.

The goods were stored under dirty and vermin-infested conditions. / Les biens étaient entreposés dans des conditions d'insalubrité propices à la présence de saleté et de vermine.

Project Haul Investigation Continues

While the original search warrant enabled the return of some property, it was clear that many more people had been victimized by the mover. News coverage resulted in calls from across the country to the investigating team.

The Canadian Association of Movers, and several of its members, offered to help the police deliver the stolen goods to their owners.

Police returned to the Green Moving warehouse with a second search warrant on October 24, 2017, anticipating the recovery of another 85 loads of goods. Unfortunately, police discovered that the suspects had begun trans-shipping the held goods – hiding them elsewhere – while removing all written record of “contracts” to another location. These documents were later recovered from the basement of the suspect's home. Computers at the scene were seized for forensic analysis, however evidence located at the facility suggested that the goods had now been stored province-wide, anonymously at unknown self-storage facilities.

The three loads remaining in the warehouse were picked up by CAM members. Premiere Van Lines Fredericton and AMJ Campbell Van Lines (agents of Atlas Van Lines Canada) shipped to their destinations in Quebec and Belle River within days, again with the assistance of Atlas Van Lines and at no charge to the owners.

“After consistently losing business to disreputable organizations such as Landmark Moving and its numerous aliases, Project Haul couldn't come quick enough,” says Jim Carney, President and CEO of Emily McCutcheon bugs Premiere's Gregg Doucette as Clifford Dubay delivers her goods. / Emily McCutcheon remerciant avec émotion Gregg Doucette de Premiere pendant que Clifford Dubay décharge les biens.

Rawlinson Moving & Storage Ltd. and CAM director, who was invited to observe the October police raid on the warehouse. "I was on the receiving end of many emotional phone calls from their clients wondering what to do next, given that they were being duped by this business. It pleased me no end to witness, first hand, the perpetrators being led to waiting police vehicles in handcuffs."

Three members of the family on record as the owner-operators of the various moving companies involved in the fraudulent activity were arrested, charged with numerous counts of fraud and possession of stolen property.

Police continue to gather evidence in the Project Haul investigation. Anyone with information regarding the current location of the held goods is asked to contact the Toronto Police Service Financial Crimes Unit, at 416-808-7300, or Corporal Amanda Ashbridge, at 416-808-7374.

Consumers Beware!

Although this group of companies was caught as the culmination of hard work by several police forces, there is a growing list of so-called "movers" to take their place.

Rogue movers entice customers through lead-generator websites. They pay huge amounts to be at the top of Google Ads lists in order to attract a lot of people, and they have appropriate-looking websites (without a lot of content) from which they send out loads of low-price quotes.

With professional-looking websites and pleasant-sounding people on the phone, these companies blend in well with the reputable movers who have spent their entire careers honing their business. To add insult to injury, they have, in many cases, produced hundreds of phony positive reviews, which help to lure unsuspecting consumers.

"Rogue movers continue to give the moving industry a bad name and, what's worse, they are taking business away from reputable movers like us," Carney concludes.

Rogue movers have an easier time now than ever in appearing to be legit. Reputable movers can play a role in battling these scandalous operators by educating their customers to do some checking, get over-the-phone testimonials if possible, get quotes in writing, make sure the company has offered valuation on the shipment, and visit the company's facility to confirm the business has "bricks and mortar." Customers should be advised to always check the company's rating with the Better Business Bureau and call CAM to find out if their mover is trusted and reliable.

It's the consumer's responsibility to make an informed choice. As a professional mover and a member of CAM, it is your responsibility to help them make it. We don't want that consumer to become the next fraud victim in the news.

CAM would like to thank the contributors to this article – the police investigators involved with Project Haul, Amanda Scrimgeour of Premiere Van Lines Fredericton, Sandra Campbell of Atlas Van Lines and Jim Carney of Rawlinson Moving & Storage Ltd.

Le Projet Haul de la police permet de retrouver des biens détenus par un déménageur malhonnête

- Une situation déplorable corrigée par des membres de l'ACD

Par Kim Biggar

LES DÉMÉNAGEURS malhonnêtes représentent un cauchemar pour les clients qui en font les frais ainsi que pour les nombreux déménageurs de bonne réputation que l'on retrouve partout au Canada et qui sont affectés lorsque l'image de l'industrie subit les contrecoups de ces fraudeurs. En dépit des efforts d'organismes tels que l'Association Canadienne des Déménageurs (ACD) et les Bureaux d'éthique du Canada (BBB), les consommateurs n'ont certainement pas entendu le message qu'il faut choisir son déménageur avec soin.

Les conséquences d'embaucher un déménageur malhonnête peuvent être dévastatrices. Certains de ces déménageurs sont bien connus pour retenir "en otage" les biens personnels de leurs clients jusqu'à ce que ceux-ci effectuent des paiements beaucoup plus importants que les montants indiqués sur leurs contrats. Leurs activités frauduleuses et leur manipulation induite des biens personnels font de leurs clients de véritables victimes.

L'année dernière, plusieurs compagnies de déménagement de Toronto – incluant Landmark Van Lines, Green Moving and Storage, Capital Moving et Ryder Moving – ont fait les nouvelles après que la police de Toronto ait reçu de nombreuses plaintes de personnes à propos de leurs services. Les entreprises, appartenant toutes à la même famille, étaient accusées de retenir indûment les biens mobiliers de leurs clients dans l'attente que ceux-ci paient des frais exorbitants que les compagnies réclamaient pour avoir supposément manipulé des poids supérieurs à l'estimation faite pour ces déménagements.

En avril 2017, des enquêteurs de l'unité des crimes financiers du Service de police de Toronto ont entrepris une enquête exhaustive; incluant des rencontres avec environ une douzaine de victimes à la grandeur du Canada qui avaient logé des plaintes contre l'une ou l'autre de ces quatre compagnies de déménagement. Il s'agissait tous de personnes dont les biens avaient été retenus en raison de frais gonflés n'ayant pas été payés. Compliquant encore plus ces situations, des représentants de ces compagnies ont menacé les clients de vendre ces biens à l'encan si les paiements exigés n'étaient pas reçus.

Fort heureusement pour deux familles du Nouveau-Brunswick, des enquêteurs policiers du Projet Haul, après que ce cas eut été diffusé, ont réussi à localiser et à saisir leurs biens.

Krista Happeney a embauché Green Moving and Storage à l'automne 2016 pour le déménagement de ses biens de l'Alberta au Nouveau-Brunswick. Les biens ne sont jamais arrivés, mais une facture de 2 000 $ en extra est bien arrivée. Après avoir argumenté avec la compagnie pendant un certain temps sans succès, madame Happeney a contacté la police.

Un couple du Nouveau-Brunswick, Joseph et Emily McCutcheon, qui ont également déménagé de l'Alberta en utilisant les services de Green Moving and Storage, ont eux aussi passé des mois après leur déménagement en novembre 2016 à tenter de recevoir leurs meubles retenus par le déménageur qui avait augmenté son prix de 2 400 $ à 15 800$. Les McCutcheon ont vécu avec des meubles empruntés et ont craint de ne plus jamais revoir leurs souvenirs de famille de grande valeur.

Le 17 mai 2017, après avoir obtenu une autorisation légale, le service de police de Toronto a mené une perquisition dans un entrepôt associé aux suspects et à leurs compagnies affiliées et ont saisi des biens appartenant à trois clients, incluant les deux familles du Nouveau-Brunswick. Des preuves supplémentaires trouvées sur la scène ont mené la police vers des douzaines de nouvelles victimes potentielles et permis de retrouver 85 autres cargaisons de biens divers.

Deux semaines plus tard, le 31 mai, l'émission CTV News Atlantic a présenté un reportage sur l'expérience de la famille Happeney; à ce moment-là, ils n'avaient toujours pas reçu leurs biens.

L'industrie du déménagement s'implique pour aider

Cette histoire a capté l'attention de la compagnie Première Van Lines Fredericton située dans les environs d'Oromocto au Nouveau-Brunswick. La compagnie a contacté Mike Cameron, le journaliste de CTV qui a interviewé la famille Happeney, afin d'offrir de déménager leurs biens – sans frais – de Toronto sur un transport par voie terrestre partant de cette région. La famille Happeney a naturellement été ravie par ce nouveau développement et a mis le personnel de la compagnie Première en contact avec la caporale Amanda Ashbridge, enquêteuse en chef dans cette cause à Toronto, afin de prendre les arrangements requis pour l'expédition.

La caporale Ashbridge a demandé aux gestionnaires de Première, Gregg Doucette et Amanda Scrimgeour, si le camion prévu pour la cueillette des biens de la famille Happeney pouvait également transporter les biens de la famille McCutcheon. La compagnie Première, avec l'assistance d'Atlas Van Lines, était par la suite en position de porter secours aux deux familles. Tout comme la famille Happeney, la famille

McCutcheon a été renversée par cette généreuse offre.

Le 7 juin, CTV a diffusé l'entrevue du journaliste Mike Cameron avec Emily et Joseph McCutcheon. Le même jour, une équipe d'officiers de police de Toronto a aidé le conducteur de Première, Don Lorette, a chargé les biens des deux familles sur son camion. Quelques jours plus tard, les biens ont été livrés à deux familles des plus heureuses et soulagées.

Malheureusement, mais sans surprise, les biens avaient été très mal entreposés, dans des emplacements où ils ont été abîmés en raison de l'exposition à la température, à la poussière et à la vermine, ainsi qu'à un entreposage désordonné qui a causé encore plus de dommages; des articles tels des matelas qui n'étaient pas emballés dont un qui a dû être mis aux rebus. Des employés d'Atlas Canada, l'entreprise de transport dont Première Fredericton est un agent s'étant vu remettre un prix Platine, étaient présents afin de documenter et de photographier l'état de ces expéditions.

De plus, les deux expéditions ont été pesées, à la demande de la police, et les deux chargements indiquaient des poids largement inférieurs aux poids indiqués et facturés par le déménageur malhonnête.

L'enquête du Projet Haul se poursuit

Tandis que le mandat de perquisition original obtenu par la police de Toronto a permis le retour de certains biens, il était clair que beaucoup plus de personnes avaient été victimes de ce déménageur. Le reportage de CTV et ses retombées médiatiques ont conduit à la réception de plusieurs appels par l'équipe d'enquête, et ce, partout au pays.

L'Association Canadienne des Déménageurs et plusieurs de ses membres ont offert d'aider la police à effectuer la livraison des biens volés à leurs propriétaires.

Le 24 octobre 2017, la police est retournée à l'entrepôt de Green Moving avec un deuxième mandat de perquisition, en espérant retrouver 85 autres chargements de biens. Malheureusement, la police a découvert que les suspects avaient commencé à déplacer les biens retenus – pour les cacher ailleurs – tout en déplaçant tous les “contrats” écrits à un autre emplacement. Ces documents ont plus tard été récupérés dans le sous-sol de la résidence d'un suspect. Des ordinateurs ont été saisis sur la scène du crime pour une analyse légale, mais des preuves retrouvées à l'entrepôt ont suggéré que les biens avaient dorénavant été entreposés à la grandeur de la province, et de façon anonyme, dans des mini-entrepôts inconnus.

Les trois chargements encore dans l'entrepôt ont été recueillis par des membres de l'ACD. Première Van Lines Fredericton et AMJ Campbell Van Lines (agents d'Atlas Van Lines Canada) les ont acheminés à leurs destinations au Québec et à Belle River en quelques jours, toujours avec l'assistance d'Atlas Van Lines et sans frais pour les propriétaires.

“Après avoir régulièrement perdu des clients au détriment d'organisations à la réputation questionnable telles que Landmark Moving et ses nombreuses autres identifications, le Projet Haul ne pouvait pas survenir assez rapidement,” a indiqué Jim Carney, Président et Chef de la direction de Rawlinson Moving & Storage Ltd. et directeur de l'ACD, qui a été invité à observer la descente effectuée à l'entrepôt par la police au mois d'octobre. “J'ai été témoin de plusieurs appels téléphoniques émotifs de ces clients demandant ce qu'ils devaient faire suite à cela, compte tenu qu'ils avaient été dupés par cette entreprise. Ce fut un plaisir sans fin pour moi d'être témoin de l'arrestation de ces gens malhonnêtes devant attendre de pénétrer dans les voitures de police menottes aux mains.”

Trois membres de cette famille considérés comme les propriétaires-exploitants de ces nombreuses compagnies de déménagement impliquées dans ces activités frauduleuses furent arrêtés, accusés de nombreux délits de fraude et de possession de propriétés volées.

La police continue de recueillir des preuves dans l'enquête du Projet Haul. Quiconque possédant des informations concernant l'emplacement actuel des biens détenus est prié de contacter l'unité des crimes économiques du Service de police de Toronto, au 416-808-7300, ou la caporale Amanda Ashbridge, au 416-808-7374.

Consommateurs soyez prudents!

Bien que ce groupe de compagnies ait été capturé à la suite du travail énorme effectué par plusieurs services policiers, il y a un nombre de plus en plus grand de “prétendus déménageurs” qui sont là pour les remplacer.

Les déménageurs malhonnêtes attirent les clients par le biais de sites Web bien positionnés. Ils paient des montants élevés afin de se retrouver en haut des listes Google Ads afin d'attirer beaucoup de personnes et ils ont des sites Web au contenu alléchant (qui ont cependant très peu de contenu) et à partir desquels ils envoient énormément de soumissions à bas prix.

Avec des sites Web d'aspect professionnel et des personnes qui se présentent bien au téléphone, ces compagnies se mélangent habilement aux déménageurs de bonne réputation qui ont passé toute leur carrière à développer leur entreprise. Pour couronner le tout, dans plusieurs cas, ils ont produit des centaines de revues d'affaires positives, bien que forgées de toute pièce, qui les aident à leurrer les consommateurs ne suspectant aucunement ces compagnies.

Les déménageurs malhonnêtes s'amusent beaucoup en ce moment car ils semblent être des entreprises légales. Les déménageurs de bonne réputation peuvent jouer un rôle clé en combattant ces exploitants scandaleux en éduquant leurs clients à mieux vérifier les antécédents de ces déménageurs, à se procurer, si possible, des témoignages par téléphone plutôt que sur Internet, à obtenir des soumissions par écrit, à s'assurer que la compagnie a offert une bonne estimation de la valeur de l'expédition et à visiter les installations de cette compagnie afin de confirmer qu'il s'agit bien là d'une entreprise des plus solides. Les clients devraient être avisés de toujours vérifier l'évaluation de cette compagnie avec le Bureau d'éthique commercial et d'appeler l'ACD pour savoir si leur déménageur est de bonne réputation et fiable.

Il est de la responsabilité du consommateur d'effectuer un choix bien informé. À titre de déménageur professionnel et de membre de l'ACD, il est de votre responsabilité de les aider à faire ce choix. Nous ne voulons pas que ce consommateur devienne la prochaine victime de fraude à paraître aux nouvelles.

L'ACD tient à remercier les collaborateurs de cet article – les enquêteurs policiers impliqués dans le Projet Haul, Amanda Scrimgeour de Première Van Lines à Fredericton, Sandra Campbell d'Atlas Van Lines et Jim Carney de Rawlinson Moving & Storage Ltd.

A Banquet of Good Fun at CAM's 2017 Annual Awards Dinner

OUR ANNUAL AWARDS DINNER is traditionally the Association's most popular event of the year. Each year it's well-attended to honour professional moving companies across the country and the individuals who work for them. This year was no exception with 181 attendees from coast to coast – far eclipsing any awards banquet to date.

Held at the beautiful William Gray Hotel on November 21, 2017 in Old Montréal, this year's dinner turned out to be quite a family event with Roger Panneton and twenty-two of his immediate family, filling the center of the room. There were other moving 'families' – the Campbells, the Frappiers, the Filgianos, to name but a few. In fact, all of the attendees were family in one way or another, and were enthusiastic, cheering on with standing ovations, laughter, and quite often tears.

At a time when rogue movers are on the rise, CAM supports and rewards reputable movers who have established themselves as credible, reliable companies who adhere to a strict code of conduct. Awardees are all folks who have worked very hard to elevate the whole moving industry and its standards.

Six awards were presented to honoured recipients at the dinner. CAM recognized the outstanding service by these moving companies and individuals who contributed to the growth and professionalism of the industry.

2017 award recipients (l. to r.) / Les récipiendaires de prix pour 2017 (g. à d.): Pierre Panneton, Amanda Scrimgeour, Patrick Greaney, Shirley C. Sveda, Adam Campbell, Tracy Campbell, Marty Wry, Perry Thorne, Bill Lyon, Gord Smith.

CAM's Public Service Award honours an individual or group who has performed a significant act of humanitarian achievement. CAM Director and President of Atlas Van Lines (Canada) Ltd. Barry Schellenberg presented this award to Premiere Van Lines (Fredericton NB) for the standards they set and the leadership they demonstrated for the industry, specifically for their commitment to quality and to their community and industry that they serve so well.

The Agent of the Year Award, which recognizes a moving company that provides outstanding corporate citizenship and customer service excellence, was presented to Geldart's Warehouse & Cartage Ltd. (Moncton NB) for their innovative programming, considerable community involvement and high level of satisfaction with their services, according to their customers and industry partners. The award was presented by Dan Lawrence, President of United Van Lines (Canada) Ltd. and CAM Director.

The Independent Mover of the Year Award recognizes an independent mover who demonstrates outstanding performance. Roger Panneton (Panneton & Panneton Moving & Storage, Montréal QC) accepted this award from Tom Filgiano, then CAM Director and President of Meldrum the Mover Inc., for his founding of a distinguished company that helped to pioneer the moving industry throughout the Province of Quebec and that represents the highest standard of moving services.

CAM's Distinguished Service Award recognizes an individual who exemplifies CAM standards for quality. This year, the award was posthumously awarded to Don Campbell (Campbell Group of Companies, London ON) for the standards he set and the leadership he demonstrated in the industry. on's wife Tracy and son Adam accepted the award from Larry Rosenberg, President of Bekins Moving and Storage (Canada) Ltd. and former CAM Chairman.

The Industry Service Award recognizes an individual who has performed a significant act of moving-related service in the public interest. Shirley C. Sveda of Atlas Van Lines (Canada) Ltd. received this award for the standards she set and the leadership she demonstrated for the industry, specifically in the areas of information technology and finance. Former CAM Chairman and President/Managing Partner of AMJ Campbell Vancouver Tom Finlay presented the award.

Bill Lyon, SIRVA (Edmonton AB) received CAM's Industry Achievement Award which recognizes an individual who demonstrates innovation, leadership and serves as an inspiration to others. Cam Carswell, CAM Chairman and President of Country Wide Moving, presented this award to Bill for his long and outstanding contribution to the moving profession.

Also presented at the dinner was the Move for Hunger Award that recognizes a moving company that has contributed the most food for the cause. This year, CAM member Tippet-Richardson Moving & Storage (Calgary AB) was the honoured recipient. During their Move for Hunger membership, they rescued 40,000 pounds of food and delivered it to their local food bank.

"The recipients are well-deserving of their awards and we are proud of each of them" said Cam Carswell, Chairman of CAM. "Every day we educate consumers on how to pick credible, professional movers. The winners of the CAM awards are excellent examples of this and an inspiration to others."

Cam extended a special thanks to the many sponsors who helped to make the dinner such a terrific event and also to Perry Thorne, retired Chair of CAM (Greg & Sons Moving and Storage), retired President Patrick Greaney and Tom Filgiano and the rest of the Conference Committee for putting on an outstanding conference and dinner.

Come on out to CAM's 2018 Conference on November 18-20th and our Annual Awards Dinner on November 20th in Niagara Falls and celebrate the contributions of the very best among us in this industry.

If you know of anyone who would be a well deserved recipient of any of these awards, let us know! Contact President Nancy Irvine at nancy@mover.net or 866-860-0065.

Une soirée de plaisir lors du dîner annuel de remise des prix de l'ACD 2017

NOTRE DÎNER ANNUEL de remise des prix de l'ACD est traditionnellement notre activité la plus populaire de l'année. Chaque année, la participation est excellente afin d'honorer des entreprises de déménagement professionnelles de tout le pays ainsi que les individus qui y travaillent. Cette année n'a pas fait exception avec une assistance de 181 participants venus d'un océan à l'autre – éclipsant de loin tous les dîners précédents.

Tenu au magnifique Hôtel William Gray du Vieux-Montréal, le 21 novembre 2017, le dîner de cette année s'est avéré une activité familiale grâce à Roger Panneton et aux vingt-deux membres de sa famille qui occupaient le centre de la salle. On y retrouvait d'autres "familles" de déménageurs – les Campbell, les Frappier et les Filgiano, pour n'en nommer que quelques-uns. En fait, tous les participants étaient des familles d'une façon ou de l'autre et ont fait preuve de beaucoup d'enthousiasme, en applaudissant fortement lors des ovations debout, en riant et, à quelques reprises, en affichant des larmes.

Au moment où les déménageurs malhonnêtes sont en pleine expansion, l'ACD supporte et récompense des déménageurs de grande réputation qui se sont établis à titre d'entreprises crédibles et fiables et qui adhèrent à un code de conduite strict. Les récipiendaires sont tous des personnes qui ont travaillé avec acharnement dans le but de mettre en valeur toute l'industrie du déménagement ainsi que ses normes.

Six prix ont été présentés aux récipiendaires de cette année lors du dîner annuel. L'ACD a ainsi reconnu les services exceptionnels offerts par ces entreprises de déménagement ainsi que par ces personnes qui ont contribué à la croissance et au professionnalisme de l'industrie.

Le Prix pour services sociaux de l'ACD rend hommage à un individu ou un groupe ayant fait preuve d'un accomplissement exceptionnel au niveau humanitaire. Le directeur de l'ACD et Président d'Atlas Van Lines (Canada) Ltd., Barry Schellenberg, a présenté ce prix à Première Van Lines (Frédéricton, Nouveau-Brunswick) pour les critères moraux qu'ils ont mis en place et le leadership qu'ils ont démontré au nom de l'industrie, tout spécialement pour leur engagement envers la qualité et envers leur communauté et l'industrie qu'ils servent si bien.

Le Prix de l'agent de l'année qui reconnaît le haut niveau de conscience sociale d'une entreprise de déménagement ainsi que l'excellence de son service à la clientèle a été présenté à Geldart's Warehouse & Cartage Ltd. (Moncton, Nouveau-Brunswick) en reconnaissance de leur programme innovateur, de leur implication marquée auprès de la communauté ainsi que du taux de satisfaction élevé à l'égard de leurs services tels que constatés par leurs clients et leurs partenaires de l'industrie. Le prix a été présenté par Dan Lawrence, Président d'United Van Lines (Canada) Ltd. et directeur de l'ACD.

Le Prix pour services exceptionnels de l'ACD reconnaît les réalisations d'un individu qui a mis en valeur les normes de qualité établies par l'ACD. Le prix de cette année a été remis, à titre posthume, à Don Campbell (Groupe de compagnies Campbell, London, Ontario) en raison des normes qu'il a contribué à établir et du leadership qu'il a démontré au sein de l'industrie. Tracy, l'épouse de Don, et leur fils, Adam, ont accepté le prix remis par Larry Rosenberg, Président de Bekins Moving and Storage (Canada) Ltd. et ancien Président du conseil de l'ACD.

Le Prix de l'industrie reconnaît les accomplissements d'une personne ayant réalisé une action exceptionnelle au niveau des services liés au déménagement au nom de l'intérêt public. Shirley C. Sveda d'Atlas Van Lines (Canada) Ltd a reçu ce prix en raison des normes élevées qu'elle a contribué à établir ainsi que du leadership qu'elle a démontré au nom de l'industrie, tout spécialement dans les secteurs des technologies de l'information et des finances. L'ancien Président du conseil de l'ACD et associé principal chez AMJ Campbell de Vancouver, Tom Finlay, a présenté ce prix.

Bill Lyon de SIRVA (Edmonton, Alberta) a reçu le Prix des réalisations dans l'industrie de l'ACD qui reconnaît les accomplissements démontrés par un individu au niveau de l'innovation et du leadership ainsi que pour la source d'inspiration qu'il représente pour tous. Cam Carswell, Président du conseil de l'ACD et le Président de Country Wide Moving, a présenté ce prix à Bill en raison de sa contribution exceptionnelle et de longue date à l'égard de la profession de déménageur.

Le prix Move for Hunger qui reconnaît les accomplissements d'une entreprise de déménagement qui a le plus contribué à la collecte de nourriture pour cette cause a également été remis lors du dîner annuel. Cette année, l'un des membres de l'ACD, Tippet-Richardson Moving & Storage/TR Westcan Inc. de Calgary, fut le récipiendaire de ce prix. Depuis qu'il s'est joint à Move for Hunger, ce déménageur a recueilli et a remis aux banques alimentaires locales tout près de 40 000 lb de nourriture.

“Les récipiendaires ont tous amplement mérité leurs prix et nous sommes fiers de chacun d'eux”, a indiqué Cam Carswell, Président du conseil de l'ACD. “Chaque jour, nous éduquons les consommateurs afin de les aider à mieux cibler des déménageurs professionnels de haute réputation. Les récipiendaires des Prix de l'ACD constituent tous d'excellents exemples de ces pratiques ainsi qu'une grande source d'inspiration pour tous.”

L'ACD a également exprimé des remerciements particuliers à l'égard des nombreux commanditaires qui ont contribué à faire de ce dîner annuel un événement exceptionnel ainsi qu'envers Perry Thorne, Président sortant du conseil de l'ACD (Greg & Sons Moving and Storage), Patrick Greaney, le Président sortant de l'ACD, ainsi que et Tom Filgiano et tous les autres membres du Comité d'organisation de la conférence pour leur contribution au succès exceptionnel de la conférence et du dîner annuel.

Joignez-vous à nous pour la conférence 2018 de l'ACD qui se déroulera du 18 au 20 novembre 2018 ainsi qu'à notre dîner annuel de remise des prix qui se tiendra le 20 novembre prochain à Niagara Falls et célébrons en grand nombre les contributions de quelques-uns des meilleurs d'entre nous au sein de notre industrie.

Si vous connaissez quelqu'un qui pourrait s'avérer un récipiendaire de grande valeur pour l'un ou l'autre de ces prix, dites-le nous! Communiquez avec notre Présidente, Nancy Irvine, à nancy@mover.net ou par téléphone au 866-860-0065.

viable implique que l'on doit s'y mettre rapidement et c'est pourquoi nous travaillons déjà à transformer vos idées en réalité.

À un moment où des déménageurs malhonnêtes et sans scrupules jettent beaucoup de discrédit sur l'industrie du déménagement, il est primordial pour notre industrie et pour nos membres de diffuser le message que les membres de l'ACD sont des déménageurs réputés et fiables qui vont travailler à relocaliser leurs clients en faisant preuve d'équité, d'honnêteté et d'intégrité, et ce, par le biais des médias sociaux, des médias traditionnels ainsi que par tous les autres moyens à notre disposition. Grâce à ces premiers partenariats, et par le biais de plusieurs autres à venir, nous pouvons ensemble nous assurer que le message soit bien véhiculé.

Doing Good is Good for Business

By Adam Lowy

SINCE founding Move For Hunger 9 years ago, I can't tell you how many times I have repeated the words "corporate social responsibility" (CSR). Everything we do is based around how companies can adopt more sustainable business practices to improve their communities. But CSR is more than just "doing good." In fact, there is a case to be made that doing good is actually good for business.

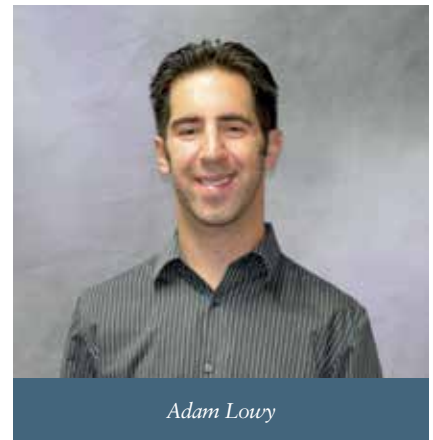

Let me break it down. More and more people want to work with socially responsible businesses. Your job is to market the good things your company is doing. Move For Hunger has been a great way for moving companies to connect with their customers because food waste and hunger are causes that many people care about. When they see that you also care about these issues, it can very easily put your company in a positive light. The cold lead instantly becomes warm.

It's not just the conversations you have, but also the way you market. Think about the money you are spending on print and digital advertising. That stuff isn't cheap, right?! Since you're already spending this money, find ways to incorporate a philanthropic twist. Maybe you're donating $5 for every move you book to raise awareness for breast cancer. Maybe you're adding Move For Hunger decals to your trucks to raise awareness for the cause. Or perhaps you sponsor a charitable event which will put the spotlight on your company and in front of hundreds of potential customers. No matter what you do, it's time to start doing something!

Beyond increasing revenue, adopting a culture of giving will also resonate with your team. People tend to stick around when they know their work is meaningful. Doing good is good for business. Now it's up to you to go out and do something!

Adam Lowy is the executive director and founder of Move For Hunger.

Faire le bien est bon pour les affaires

Par Adam Lowy

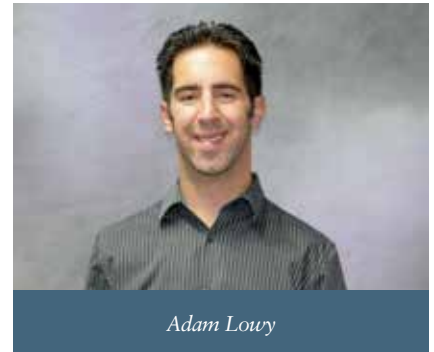

DEPUIS la création du mouvement Move For Hunger il y a 9 ans, c'est impossible pour moi de vous dire à combien de reprises j'ai prononcé les mots "responsabilité sociale corporative" (RSC). Tout ce que nous faisons est basé sur les moyens par lesquels les compagnies peuvent adopter des pratiques commerciales plus responsables afin de contribuer à améliorer leurs communautés. Mais la RSC signifie beaucoup plus que simplement "faire le bien". En fait, il est important d'insister sur le fait que faire le bien est plus que bon pour les affaires.

Permettez-moi d'élaborer là-dessus. De plus en plus de personnes veulent travailler avec des entreprises socialement responsables. Votre travail est de promouvoir les bonnes actions que votre compagnie réalise. L'organisme Move For Hunger s'est avéré un excellent moyen pour permettre aux compagnies de déménagement d'établir un lien avec leurs clients parce que le gaspillage de nourriture et les personnes dans le besoin sont deux causes qui tiennent à cœur à beaucoup de personnes. Lorsque ces personnes constatent que vous êtes également concerné par ces problèmes, ce fait peut aisément positionner avantageusement votre entreprise. Le lien plus distant devient instantanément plus étroit.

Il ne s'agit donc pas seulement des conversations que vous pouvez avoir, mais également de la façon dont vous faites la promotion de votre entreprise. Pensez au montant d'argent que vous dépensez pour de la publicité imprimée et numérique. Ces investissements sont assez dispendieux, pas vrai? Puisque vous dépensez déjà cet argent, essayez de trouver des façons d'y incorporer un volet philanthropique. Peut-être remettez-vous 5 $ à la cause du cancer du sein pour chaque déménagement effectué. Peut-être ajoutez-vous les autocollants du mouvement Move For Hunger sur vos camions afin de mieux faire connaître cette cause. Ou peut-être commanditez-vous un événement charitable qui contribuera à faire connaître votre entreprise auprès de centaines de clients potentiels. Quoi que vous fassiez, c'est le temps de commencer à faire quelque chose!

Bien au-delà de l'accroissement de vos revenus, l'adoption d'une culture associée au don aura également des répercussions sur votre équipe de travail. Les personnes ont tendance à demeurer fidèles à leur employeur lorsqu'elles constatent que leur travail est significatif. Faire le bien est bon pour les affaires. Il n'en tient maintenant qu'à vous de vous lancer et de faire quelque chose en ce sens!

CAM is Building Relationships

In the past six months, CAM's been very busy enhancing its relationships with friends of the moving industry. We've renewed our involvement with the National Council of Moving Associations – a 30-member association involving State and National moving associations – to get ahead of the game by learning about US issues and solutions before they hit Canada. CAM is now an accredited BBB member and we are actively cross-promoting with them about the benefits of choosing a trusted and professional mover. And we're strengthening our relationships with our advertisers and sponsors. We want to let you know how important you all are to us!

L'ACD développe de nouveaux liens

Au cours des six derniers mois, l'ACD a été très occupée à améliorer ses liens d'affaires avec d'autres relations de l'industrie du déménagement. Nous avons renouvelé notre implication avec le National Council of Moving Associations – une association formée de 30 membres représentant des associations de déménagement nationales et d'états – afin d'être tenue bien informée des différents enjeux aux États-Unis ainsi que des solutions considérées avant que ceux-ci ne surviennent au Canada. L'ACD est maintenant un membre accrédité du BBB et nous mettons en place concrètement des promotions croisées avec ceux-ci relativement aux bénéfices liés au choix d'un déménageur de confiance et professionnel. Et de plus, nous solidifions nos relations d'affaires avec nos annonceurs et nos commanditaires. Nous voulons que vous sachiez quelle importance vous représentez pour nous!

BUILDING BLOCKS

-- For Next Generation Performance

Canadian Association of Movers' 23rd Annual Conference

Sunday, November 18, 2018 (6:00 pm) – Tuesday, November 20, 2018 (9:00 pm)

Crowne Plaza Niagara Falls-Fallsview Hotel, 5685 Falls Avenue, Niagara Falls ON L2E 6W7

By far the most informative and well run of all the conferences I have attended as a CAM member. You get an A+ at every level.
-- feedback on CAM's 2017 annual conference

THE PROGRAM

Expanding on last year's conference theme of change, our theme this year will be Building Blocks for Next Generation Performance.

This year's 2-day program will help you understand and prepare for changes that are definitely coming our way. This conference will answer some questions that may keep you and your staff awake at night:

- How will the new cannabis legislation affect my office?
- What do we need to do to understand millennials?
- Are Canadians moving for work and can we tap that market?
- How do we successfully promote to our largest moving sector when they rely completely on the Internet?
- You're ready to retire. Are you confident that the handover to the next generation is going to go smoothly?
- How are electronic logging devices affecting US moving companies one year into operation? Is Canada ready?

As part of your registration, you are invited to an informal reception on Sunday evening at the Niagara Brewing Company and Monday evening's reception at the Hard Rock Café (hosted by Ogilvy Insurance). Our spacious vendor area will host one of our biggest trade shows to date with several new exhibitors with exciting wares and services. There will be some down time available for you to explore the Falls or attractions in the area.

The conference will close on Tuesday evening at CAM's very popular Chairman's Reception and Annual Awards Dinner where we'll honour distinguished members in the industry. Last year's Dinner was a huge success and we expect another great turnout this year again.

THE CITY

Discover the magic of winter in Niagara Falls. We encourage you to bring your spouse and family to this wonderful destination city. Saturday, November 17th is the beginning of the world-famous Niagara Falls "Festival of Lights" which will see 8 km of parkland alongside the Falls illuminated to capture the magic of the holiday season. Niagara Falls, one of Earth's natural wonders, is one of many great attractions to visit in the area. The Falls are surrounded by some of the best attractions in Ontario.

Clifton Hill has become one of the most visited streets in Niagara Falls. Located in the heart of the tourist district, the "Hill" is home to attractions, museums, fun houses, haunted houses and restaurants.

If you have a car, take a short, scenic drive along Niagara's wine routes that will lead you to an impressive number of wineries recognized around the world for outstanding quality, including Peller Estates and the newly-opened Gretzky Winery.

THE HOTEL

The Crowne Plaza – The Queen of Niagara Falls. The Crowne Plaza is part of the only hotel, entertainment and attractions complex in Niagara that is directly across from the Falls. It's home to the Hard Rock Café, Casino Niagara, Canada's only Hershey's Chocolate World Store and the exciting Adventure City with mini golf, bumper cars, and pinball and gaming machines. Directly connected to the Crowne Plaza is the 3-acre Fallsview Indoor Waterpark – featuring 16 slides, full size wave pool, Tiny Tots Splash Park, 1000-gallon tipping bucket and more! Less than 20 steps away from the hotel is the Niagara Brewing Company, proudly brewing innovative craft beer.

Casino Niagara is directly connected through an indoor skywalk to the Crowne Plaza providing easy access to Casino fun.

At the fantastic "Fallsview" room rate of $115 (single/double), $145 (triple) or $165 (quad), it's worth coming in early. Why not bring the whole family?

Book a room at 1-800-519-9911 or online under Canadian Association of Movers.

Visit CAM's Events web page on www.mover.net for links to:

- A detailed conference flyer and registration form.

5 Checks for Choosing Your Mover

Be thorough in your background research BEFORE doing business with a moving company. It could save you a lot of grief afterwards.

-  Check the company's website for contact information.
Make sure they have a physical location you can check out.
-  Check the Canadian Association of Movers for a trusted, professional mover.
-  Check out the company's BBB Business Profile.
-  Check for scams.
-  Check your instincts.
If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is!

*Trade-mark of the Council of Better Business Bureaus used under license.
