Arpin Van Lines Canadian Agent Lends Trucks and Labour to Support Toronto Cancer Charities

TORONTO (June 1, 2012) - Arpin Van Lines Canada agent, Collins-Mehling Transfer Ltd., lent its support to two cancer charities in May, including the GoodLife Fitness Toronto Marathon and the Sporting Life 10K Run.

"Giving back to the local community and being a good neighbor are just part of our values as a business," said Mike Mehling, president of Collins-Mehling Transfer. "We like to take a hands-on approach to community service and our employees always take great pride in doing their part to help."

"Collins-Mehling has been involved with the Goodlife Fitness Marathon for more than 10 years and just had its first year with the Sporting Life 10K," said Tom Stephens, vice president of Arpin Van Lines. "The company provides trucks, warehouses and personnel to help move and store shirts and runners gear. We are very proud of agents who support their communities and donate resources to a good cause."

The Run or Walk to Conquer Cancer is held in association with The GoodLife Fitness Toronto Marathon in support of the Princess Margaret Hospital Foundation. The Foundation is one of the top five cancer centers in the world.

The Sporting Life 10K Run in Toronto raises money for Camp Oochigeas, which is a summer camp for kids with cancer. The race draws an estimated 25,000 participants.
